To the Judges of the 9th Circuit who may be adjudging whether En Banc review is appropriate in Peruta V. County of San Diego #10-56971.

Honorable Judges;

I have previously Pro Bono, Pro Se, & Pro Per, and Amicus Curie submitted in opposition to En Banc review based upon Judicial Economy.

The Judicial Economy reasons are as follows:

A. The 9th Circuit, as well as the other federal courts, are over worked and underfunded. These courts collectively have spent far too much time and effort addressing this 2nd Amendment issue.

B. When En Banc review is granted, the court spends almost five (5) times the effort as hearing one case. The judges, the judges' staff, and the court personals time should be considered when reviewing for En Banc.

C. The Nordyke V. King, a 2nd Amendment case, was in this court for twelve (12) years.

D. Whatever the 9th Circuit's En Banc determination is, the US Supreme Court will grant certiorari on this issue, thus mootng this 9th Circuit determination.

Rather than rehashing this case, it is time for the Supreme Court to resolve this 2nd Amendment issue.

Respectfully submitted,

Allan J. Mayer SBN (169962)
