

UNITED STATES OF APPEALS FOR THE TENTH CIRCUIT

EMMANUEL HUITRON-GUIZAR,) Appellant,)
vs.)	Case No: 11-8051
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) Appellee,)

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE OPENING BRIEF

COMES NOW, the Appellant, by and through his attorney, Ronald G. Pretty, and in his Motion for Extension of Time to File Opening Brief does allege and state:

1. That the Brief is due 26 October 2011.
2. That this is the first Motion for Extension of Time.
3. That the Appellant's counsel had been contacted as to this Motion for Extension of Time to File Brief and he stipulates to the Extension of Time which was in the original motion.
4. That Counsel represented the Appellant at Sentencing.

5. That the Appellant's counsel was out of the country from October 1st until October 24th.
6. That the Appellant's counsel also prepared and filed an Anders Brief before he left on vacation in Cano v. United States 11-8054.
7. That the Court probably understands the problem in just returning from vacation for a sole practitioner.
8. That the Appellee's Counsel does not oppose the extension

WHEREFORE the Appellant Prays for the following relief:

1. That the Appellant be given until 10 November 2011 to file the Opening Brief.
2. That the Court decree such other additional and further relief as the Court deems to be just and equitable.

DATED this 26th day of October 2011.
