Appellees)

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE RAISED

1. Whether the challenged firearm registration requirements in D.C. Code § 7-2501.01 et seq. violate the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.
2. Whether the district court erred in treating plaintiffs’ Motions to Strike Expert Reports of defendants’ witnesses Vince, Jones, and Lanier as motions in limine, and in denying those motions.
3. Whether the prohibitions on “assault weapons” and “large capacity ammunition feeding devices” violate the Second Amendment, and whether those prohibitions are authorized by D.C. Code § 1-303.43. (This issue will not be briefed because it was decided by this court on a previous appeal in this case, but the issue has been preserved below by the Third Amended Complaint and is preserved in this court).

Respectfully submitted,

Dick Anthony Heller
