COURT OF APPEAL - First App. Dist.
DIANA HERBERT

BY _____

BY THE COURT:

Oral argument having been requested or ordered by the court, the case is now set for argument before Division 4 of the First Appellate District on Tuesday, November 13, 2007 at 09:30 AM at 350 McAllister Street, Fourth Floor, San Francisco, California 94102. Prior to the hearing date, counsel may still elect to waive oral argument, or request to appear by telephone.

The court has fully reviewed the briefs, the record, and the pertinent legal authorities, and is of the preliminary opinion that 20 minutes of argument per side appears to be sufficient. (See California Rules of Court, rule 8.256 (c)(2).) However, the presiding justice retains the discretion to expand the time depending on the arguments of counsel, and the extent of questioning by the panel.

If counsel intends to rely on cases decided after briefing, it shall serve notice on the court and counsel at least five calendar days prior to argument.

The court already has before it any trial court exhibits it considers necessary. If other exhibits are to be transmitted to the court, counsel must comply with rule 8.224 of the California Rules of Court.

Ignazio J. Ruvolo
Presiding Justice
