Re: California Gun Litigation

Dear Mr. Ebert:

According to our records, you were served as an agent for International Armament Corp. d/b/a Interarms Industries, Inc. (collectively "International Armament") with the San Francisco and Los Angeles City complaints in the California Gun Litigation on July 23, 1999, and with the Los Angeles County complaint on September 8, 1999. We have no record of a responsive pleading filed on behalf of International Armament for any of these actions.

If International Armament has filed a responsive pleading in any of these actions or has failed to respond for a particular reason, please advise us accordingly in writing immediately. Otherwise, the plaintiffs in these actions will seek a default judgment against International Armament fifteen days after the date on which a coordination trial judge is assigned.
