Re: California Gun Litigation

Dear Mr. Atwood:

According to our records, you were served through substitute service as an agent for Charter Arms, Inc., with the San Francisco and Los Angeles City complaints in the California Gun Litigation with service deemed effective on September 3, 1999. Our records also indicate that you were personally served with the Los Angeles County complaint on September 8, 1999. We have no record of a responsive pleading filed on behalf of Charter Arms for any of these actions.

If Charter Arms has filed a responsive pleading in any of these actions or has failed to respond for a particular reason, please advise us accordingly in writing immediately. Otherwise, the plaintiffs in these actions will seek a default judgment against Charter Arms fifteen days after the date on which a coordination trial judge is assigned.
