DECLARATION OF WILLIAM N. HOWARD

My name is William N. Howard. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I make this Declaration on personal knowledge. I am an attorney of record in the above-entitled action. I am over the age of 18 years and competent to testify to the matters set forth herein.

1. I am an equity partner and attorney at the law firm of Freeborn & Peters LLP ("F&P") in Chicago, Illinois. I have been actively practicing law since 1985. I have attached as Exhibit "A" to this Declaration a copy of my resume, which accurately sets forth my experience over the last 25 years.

2. My practice consists primarily of complex commercial litigation, as well as all aspects of complex construction, business, shareholder, trademark, trade secret, non-compete, and product liability litigation and all pre-litigation planning and strategy.

3. I have overseen and supervised all activities by F&P related to representing National Rifle Association of America, Inc., Robert Klein Engler, and Dr. Gene A. Reisinger ("Plaintiffs") in the above-referenced matter. Given my involvement in these proceedings, I am familiar with the work of my colleagues as well as the work I performed with respect to these proceedings. Our legal team was appropriately staffed. The tasks were distributed according to the experience level of the attorneys, and paralegals and other staff members were utilized appropriately. Although some tasks required more than one attorney due to the complex nature of the legal issues or time constraints, we were careful to avoid duplication. In fact, care was taken to include associates with a lower billable rate to perform tasks commensurate with their experience such as discreet research assignments.

4. I am familiar with the manner in which F&P maintains its business records and generates its billing records. F&P attorneys and paralegals are required to maintain time records at or near the time that the work is performed. Throughout the course of this litigation, F&P has had the following billing policy: every Wednesday by 5:00 pm, every F&P attorney and paralegal is required to cause his/her time from the previous week to be inputted into F&P's electronic billing system. Within the first few business days of each month, a deadline is set by the Accounting Department by which all time entries, costs and disbursements from the previous month must be inputted in the electronic billing system to generate an invoice. By the 15th of each month, an invoice is generated to reflect all fees and costs incurred from the previous month. Exhibit "B", attached hereto and made a part hereof, is comprised of true and correct copies of invoices and billing records which were created and maintained as a business records in the ordinary course of F&P's business and pursuant to F&P's billing policies.

5. During my representation of Plaintiffs, I charged clients between $450.00 and $475.00 per hour. These rates are less than my current customary rate of $545.00 per hour and less than my customary rate during 2010, which was $540.00, and less than my customary rate during 2009, which was $525.00 per hour. See Exhibit "C".

6. During my representation of Plaintiffs on the above referenced matter, I charged Plaintiffs for 322 hours of work over approximately 35 months, from August 2008 through June 2011. See Exhibit "B". I charged Plaintiffs $450.00 per hour for 5.3 hours of work during the first month of my representation and $475.00 per hour for 316.70 hours of work thereafter. Id. In total, I charged Plaintiffs $152,817.50 in attorneys' fees. Id. This work was necessary to adequately represent Plaintiffs' interests. I provided significant consultation regarding local rules and practices, managed the drafting and filing of multiple motions, and conducted extensive legal research, and assisted in the preparation for oral argument.

7. Attorney Daniel Dooley was the senior associate attorney at F&P that primarily assisted me in the above-entitled action. Daniel Dooley has been actively practicing law for 10 years. His practice at the time consisted primarily of complex commercial litigation. The biography of Daniel Dooley, who has since left F&P, is attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

8. Daniel Dooley provided significant consultation regarding local rules and practices, participated in the drafting and filing of multiple motions, conducted extensive legal research, and assisted in the preparation for oral argument. Daniel Dooley also participated in the preparation and filing of briefs with the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Daniel Dooley billed 368.10 hours at $295.00, for a total charge to Plaintiffs of $108,589.50. See Ex. "B".

9. In addition, seven other attorneys from F&P each charged a relatively small amount of fees in the above referenced matter. See Ex. "B." These attorneys provided legal research and consulted on discreet issues relating to the case for which they have particular expertise. For example, Michael P. Kornak and James M. Witz, who are partners at F&P, provided limited consultation, based on their expertise, that solely related to Seventh Circuit appellate issues. The remaining attorneys listed on Exhibit "B" are associates at F&P who provided discreet legal research and performed other legal tasks at a lower billable rate that was commensurate with their experience. The biographies of these seven attorneys are attached hereto as Group Exhibit "E". Other representative matters during the relevant timeframe that establish that these seven attorneys charges rates equal to or greater than that rates charged in this case are attached as Exhibit "F".

10. Debra O'Rourke, a legal assistant, charged 5.3 hours of work at $45.00 per hour, for a total of $238.50. See Ex. "B."

11. My firm's office services department also billed .20 hours at $40.00 per hour, for a total of $8.00. See Ex. "B."

12. In addition to fees charged, my firm also charged Plaintiffs for necessary costs associated with bringing the above captioned action. Those costs, incurred over the 35 months this action has been pending amount to $36,430.72. Those cost include photocopying, court costs, electronic research, messenger services, a small amount of travel expenses, and other necessary incidental expenses.

13. In total, myself and my firm charged the Plaintiffs $315,174.92 in fees and costs. These fees and costs were necessary to adequately represent Plaintiffs in this complex and imporatan matter that addressed a fundamental constitution right.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and currect.

Current Professional Experience

Freeborn & Peters, LLP, Chicago, Illinois – December 2000 to present.

Past-Chairman-Executive Committee / Member-Executive Committee / Equity Partner.

Mr. Howard's practice includes the representation of a diverse array of clients from entrepreneurs to Fortune 500 corporations in matters involving six-figure controversies to one-half billion dollar disputes. He has experience in all aspects of complex construction, commercial, business, shareholder, trademark, trade secret, non-compete, and product liability litigation including pre-litigation planning and strategy, litigation avoidance strategies, auditing of business practices, arbitration, mediation, administrative hearings, temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction hearings, and bench and jury trials. Mr. Howard has significant first-chair trial experience.

General Counsel Experience.

Mr. Howard also has General Counsel experience. He has served as Outside General Counsel for domestic and foreign companies including a manufacturer of products doing business in over 75 countries. Mr. Howard coordinated and managed trademark, non-compete, confidentiality, licensing, distributorship, litigation and general corporate matters, working with both domestic and foreign counsel and business advisors. Mr. Howard's more 25 years of business litigation, trial and business counseling experience and expertise, along with his accounting background and Outside General Counsel experience, provides him with an unique and unparalleled perspective amongst litigators, trial lawyers and business advisors. Mr. Howard's experiences, spanning from the trenches in the courtroom to strategizing and tackling issues in the Board room, allows him to provide clients with an uncommon resource and a savvy, empirical perspective.

Combining a broad understanding of real-world business, marketing, production, regulatory and corporate issues businesses encounter everyday, with 25 years of trial, litigation and business counseling experience, Mr. Howard is uniquely qualified to weigh, measure and balance the intricate and inter-related legal and business issues confronting executives and directors in today's Board rooms. His ability to combine and provide a pragmatic and legal view to his clients' business and legal issues provides a foundation for his work as a trusted legal advisor to both private and publicly-held businesses.

Mr. Howard is a Past-Chairman of the Executive Committee and is serving his third term as a Member of that Committee which is responsible for the general oversight and strategic planning for the Firm.

Daniel Dooley is an experienced litigator who regularly represents lending institutions and other creditors in the enforcement and protection of their rights. Mr. Dooley also represents bankruptcy trustees in adversary proceedings and asset recovery actions, working for the benefit of both creditors and debtor estates. Mr. Dooley enforces creditors rights both before and after judgment by enforcing lending agreements, obtaining extraordinary remedies, obtaining receiverships and recovering assets. In addition to his work on the behalf of creditors, Mr. Dooley has represented a wide variety of businesses in a business in complex commercial litigation, focusing on complex contractual disputes, securities litigation, consumer class action defense, non-compete agreement disputes, civil RICO matters and commercial fraud investigations.

Mr. Dooley regularly appears in federal and state courts throughout the country at trials and hearings and represents clients at arbitrations and mediations. He also has substantial experience presenting and arguing dispositive motions, facilitating both traditional and electronic discovery, advising clients regarding statutory compliance, and counseling clients regarding a wide variety of contracts, including non-compete agreements, purchase and sale agreements, LLC agreements, shareholder agreements, and licensing agreements.

Summary of Experience

Rachel Atterberry is an Associate in the Litigation Practice Group and her areas of focus include: Complex Disputes, E-Discovery and Employment Litigation.

Ms. Atterberry focuses her practice on business and employment litigation. Some of her representative matters include working with other Freeborn & Peters attorneys to successfully obtain a preliminary injunction on behalf of a manufacturer whose specialized tooling was converted in China, as well as successfully obtaining a settlement (with no dollars paid) and dismissal with prejudice of the employment discrimination claims of a group of employees.

Ms. Atterberry has authored numerous separation agreements and dispositive motions, including several successful summary judgment briefs. Ms. Atterberry represents clients in federal and state courts throughout the United States on a wide variety of cases involving claims such as breach of contract, non-competition, unfair trade practices and defamation. She has represented clients in mediations and arbitrations.

Ms. Atterberry's significant experience in employment disputes includes handling the day-to-day management responsibilities of cases before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Illinois Department of Human Rights, the Illinois Human Rights Commission, other state agencies and state and federal courts.

Ms. Atterberry also counsels clients regarding various employment matters as well as electronic discovery issues, litigation holds, and records management.

Ms. Atterberry was selected for inclusion in Illinois Super Lawyers - Rising Stars for 2011 by Law & Politics magazine. Rising Stars are lawyers under the age of 40 who have been in practice for 10 years or less. Approximately 2.5 percent of up-and-coming attorneys in the state are named to the Rising Stars list.

Ms. Atterberry joined the firm as a summer associate.

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Michael P. Kornak is a Partner in the Litigation Practice Group and serves as co-chair of the firm's Recruiting Committee and as a member of the Professional Review Committee.

Mr. Kornak has represented a broad range of clients across various industries. As a result, he has developed extensive experience in complex commercial cases, shareholder disputes, non-competition and trade-secret litigation, product-liability matters, and appeals. His practice is national in scope, and he has litigated matters in federal and state courts across the United States.

Prior to joining Freeborn & Peters, Mr. Kornak served as a law clerk to the Honorable Alice M. Batchelder, Circuit Judge for the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Mr. Kornak was recently selected as one of 2010's "40 Illinois Attorneys Under Forty to Watch" from more than 900 nominations by the Law Bulletin Publishing Company, publisher of the Chicago Daily Law Bulletin and Chicago Lawyer.

Representative Matters

- Successfully represented a large private company in the food industry, its Board of Directors, and its officers in two lawsuits involving a former officer. These suits, which culminated in three bench trials and a jury trial that lasted nearly six weeks, involved causes of action for fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, shareholder oppression, breach of contract, and tortious interference with business expectancy.
- Obtained dismissal of a derivative lawsuit asserting breach-of-fiduciary-duty claims against the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of a health-care company. The case involved a novel legal question regarding a plaintiff's "standing" to bring derivative claims.
- Successfully represented a major oil company with respect to antitrust issues and disputes arising out of one of the largest industrial mergers in United States history.
- Successfully defended a major automobile manufacturer in a product-liability suit seeking more than $20 million in damages. The National Law Journal heralded the victory as one of the top defense verdicts of the year.
- Represented a large medical-device company in non-competition, trade-secret, and product-liability disputes across the country.
- Served as national counsel for a fitness-equipment manufacturer in product-liability lawsuits filed throughout the United States.
- Successfully appealed a lawsuit brought against a large national bank. The Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that the case should be dismissed, and, in the process, established new law in the Circuit regarding the "citizenship" of a national bank for purposes of diversity jurisdiction.

Freeborn & Peters LLP

Michael P. Kornak

Partner

- Successfully appealed the dismissal of a breach-of-warranty lawsuit filed against a major automobile manufacturer, thereby obtaining court approval of the company's warranty language.
- Successfully appealed the dismissal of claims brought against a self-service storage facility in a case that involved an issue of first impression under Illinois law.

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

Verona M. Sandberg is an associate in the Litigation practice group and her areas of focus include: Antitrust and Trade Regulation, Complex Disputes, E-discovery, and Employment Litigation.

Ms. Sandberg focuses her practice on business litigation, and has worked on a wide range of cases dealing with breach of contract, antitrust, and employment law. Some of her representative antitrust matters have involved working with other Freeborn & Peters attorneys to defend a global mining company against allegations of price-fixing and output restriction in a large multi-district litigation class action, as well as counseling a client with regards to a potential merger with one of its competitors. Ms. Sandberg also has assisted various clients with breach-of-contract disputes in state and federal courts, as well as in arbitration proceedings. She has drafted separation agreements and has defended companies against discrimination and wrongful termination claims.

Ms. Sandberg also counsels clients regarding electronic discovery issues (including those related to the recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure), litigation holds, and records management.

Ms. Sandberg joined the firm, first as a summer associate in 2002, after working in economic/financial consulting for one of the Big Five accounting firms.
