Counsel for Amici Curiae

1. On December 6, 2012, prospective amici submitted a brief to this Court, accompanied by a motion for leave to file an amicus brief.
2. The December 6 brief erroneously omitted the F.R.A.P. disclosure statement that no parties had made a financial contribution towards the preparation of the brief.
3. On December 12, 2012, prospective amici filed a corrected brief, via ECF.
4. The only change in the brief was the addition of the appropriate disclosure statement as a new paragraph at the end of the section labeled "Statement Amici Interests." In addition, the word count disclosure following the brief was changed to reflect the new number of words.
5. There were no other changes to brief, and the wording of all substantive sections remains exactly the same as in the original December 6 filing, with the exception of the addition of a one paragraph disclosure statement.

WHEREFORE, the movants respectfully request that this Motion to for leave to file the corrected brief be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

David B. Kopel
