1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that pursuant to the order of the Magistrate Judge 3 (Dkt #162) Charles Nichols, In Pro Per, submits this, his timely Objection and 4 Opposition to the Report and Recommendation (RR) Dkt #162 of the Magistrate 5 Judge (MJ) to the District Court Judge currently assigned to this case - Hon. S.
6 James Otero. The RR was filed on March 18, 2014 as Dkt #162.

7 8 INTRODUCTION

9 As a threshold matter the Magistrate Judge (MJ) and Defendant Harris' 10 "[A]rgument reflects a misunderstanding of the Supreme Court's jurisprudence.
11 Facial challenges are disfavored for two reasons. First, when considering "complex 12 and comprehensive legislation," we may not "resolve questions of constitutionality 13 with respect to each potential situation that might develop," especially when the 14 moving party does not demonstrate that the legislation "would be unconstitutional 15 in a large fraction of relevant cases." Gonzales v. Carhart, 550 U.S. 124, 167-68 16 (2007) (internal quotation omitted). Second, facial challenges "often rest on 17 speculation." Wash. State Grange, 552 U.S. at 450. Consequently, "they raise the 18 risk of premature interpretations of statutes on the basis of factually barebones 19 records," and "threaten to short circuit the democratic process by preventing laws 20 embodying the will of the people from being implemented in a manner inconsistent 21 with the Constitution." Id. at 450-51. [Plaintiff Nichols'] facial challenge to 22 section[s] [PC 25850, 26350 and 26400] raises neither concern. First, [these] 23 section[s]...[are] not an example of "complex and comprehensive legislation" 24 which may be constitutional in a broad swath of cases. Either [they are a] 25 permissible burden on the Second Amendment right to "keep and bear arms" or 26 [they are] not. Second, unlike the voting scheme at issue in Washington State 27 Grange, the constitutionality of [these] section[s]...does not turn on how 28 [Defendant Harris] chooses to enforce [them]. [Each] statute constitutes a flat

1 prohibition on keeping [and bearing arms]...in [the curtilage of Plaintiff's home, in 2 or on his motor vehicle, in or on any attached camper or trailer, and in public 3 places]. On [their] face, [they do] not give courts the opportunity to construe the 4 prohibition[s] narrowly or accord the prohibition[s] "a limiting construction to 5 avoid constitutional questions." Id. at 450.'" Jackson v. City & Cnty. of San 6 Francisco, slip op. No. 12-17803 (9th Cir. Mar. 25, 2014) at pgs 13-14.

7 "Heller indicated that the Second Amendment does not preclude certain 8 "longstanding prohibitions" and "presumptively lawful regulatory measures," such 9 as "prohibitions on carrying concealed weapons..." Jackson at pg 8.

10 The MJ construed dicta in a non-binding, as-applied, and currently stayed 11 decision (Peruta v. County of San Diego, slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 12 2014)) which explicitly stated that it was not "ruling on the constitutionality of 13 California statutes." Id at [fn 19] to mean that Open Carry, even in Plaintiff's 14 home, falls outside of the scope of the Second Amendment and therefore "rational 15 review" applies to Plaintiff's Second Amendment and equal protection challenges.
 16 As the citations to Jackson above clearly prove, the MJ and Defendant Harris are 17 clearly in error.

18 "When a statute burdens a fundamental right or targets a suspect class, that 19 statute receives heightened scrutiny under the Fourteenth Amendment's Equal 20 Protection Clause." Silveira v. Lockyer, 312 F.3d 1052, 1087 (9th Cir. 2002).
 21 Statutes that infringe on fundamental rights are subject to strict scrutiny review...
 22 Id. at 1087." Silvester v Harris, 2013 WL 6415670 (E.D.Cal. Dec. 9, 2013).

23 "A regulation that threatens a core Second Amendment right is subject to 24 strict scrutiny..." Silvester v Harris, 2013 WL 6415670 (E.D.Cal. Dec. 9, 2013).

25 Plaintiff, of course, has plead separate as-applied challenges including to his 26 home, in and on his motor vehicles and in and on any attached camper or trailer as 27 well as numerous others and implicit categorical challenges to the three bans. The 28 report and recommendation (RR) of the MJ is rife with errors. Plaintiff will

1 attempt to refute as many as he can in the very limited number of pages allowed in 2 this, his objection and opposition to the RR of the MJ.

3 Furthermore, it is an uncontroverted, undisputed fact that “concealed carry 4 substantially burdens Plaintiff Nichols’ ability to defend himself even if he had a 5 concealed carry license.” SUF 132. Likewise, “It takes several minutes to load a 6 muzzle-loading revolver” SUF 105 and “It takes many seconds to load a muzzle-7 loading long gun.” SUF 106. Los Angeles County has not changed its CCW 8 policy in light of Peruta. Plaintiff Nichols is still not eligible for a CCW license.
9 The Los Angeles County Sheriff does not believe that Peruta is binding and the 9th 10 Circuit Court of Appeals has stayed the appeal of Thomson v. Torrance Police 11 Department, et al Case No. 2:11-cv-06154-SJO-JC Appellate Case No. 12-56236, 12 pending “a mandate in Peruta v. County of San Diego, 10-5697...” A case in 13 which this very court upheld the highly restrictive CCW policy of the Sheriff.

14 California’s “regulatory” scheme taken as a whole has resulted in the 15 destruction of Plaintiff’s Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms in the 16 State of California. Granting Plaintiff’s MPSJ will partially restore those rights.

17 Mere refusal to “voluntarily” consent to a search in and of itself never 18 constitutes grounds for an arrest. California’s “regulatory” scheme is violative of 19 the Fourth Amendment as well. And, of course, a criminal statute enacted based 20 solely on race, even though the language is “race neutral,” is facially 21 unconstitutional under the 14th Amendment to the US Constitution.

23 LINE ITEM OBJECTIONS AND OPPOSITION TO THE REPORT AND 24 RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

25 The objections and opposition stated in the Introduction are fully 26 incorporated here, by reference. The format is RR:page #,beginning line # hyphen 27 ending line #. Eg., RR:1,1-3 means page 1, lines 1-3. Multiple pages and line 28

1 numbers are separated with a semicolon. This court should not construe any 2 omission by Plaintiff as a consent to any findings of fact or conclusion of law.

3 RR:1,18-21 – Plaintiff Nichols filed a declination to proceed before the MJ 4 (Dkt. # 16). Defendant Harris did not consent to proceed before the MJ as well, 5 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636. For this reason and for the good cause reasons and/or 6 extraordinary circumstances shown below, or on its own, this court should vacate 7 its referral to Magistrate Judge Segal for further proceedings (Dkt. #108) pursuant 8 to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 73(b)(3).

9 RR:1,22-28;2,1-28;3,1-11;4,1-6;5,1-5 – The procedural statement of the MJ 10 is incomplete and thus inaccurate. This court has access to all of the filings in this 11 case and it is those full and complete filings, including Plaintiff's objections and 12 the FRCP, FRAP and case law cited in those and this filing that this court should 13 rely upon.

14 RR:3 [fn 1] – “substantively similar” is not the same thing as identical.
15 Defendant Harris filed a second, untimely opposition which the MJ has relied upon 16 in her RR which has prejudiced Plaintiff Nichols. The objection should be granted.

17 RR:3-4 [fn 2] – This court never ruled on the Redondo Beach Defendants 18 filings following Plaintiff's FAC to which Defendant Harris filed a RJN, they 19 remain in dispute. Plaintiff Nichols did not plead nolo contendere to carrying a 20 weapon into a park. According to the city's own municipal code, the protest took 21 place in a location of the city exempted from the “park” ban and the city's own 22 definition of park. That is abundantly clear in Plaintiff's SAC. The MJ is making 23 incorrect findings of fact based on documents filed by a party which was 24 voluntarily dismissed (without prejudice), documents which contain many factual 25 errors, documents which were and are in dispute and which contain personal 26 information which was required to be redacted before filing. These records are rife 27 with errors; they are mistaken in even the simplest of facts (e.g., Plaintiff's height 28 and race). Defendant Harris' RJN should be denied.

1 RR:5,1-6;5 [fn 4];6,1-2 – Plaintiff’s SAC raises as-applied as well as facial 2 challenges and should this court rely on John Doe No. 1 v. Reed, ___ U.S. ___, 130 3 S. Ct. 2811, 2817 (2010), implicitly categorical challenges as well.

4 What can be more as-applied to Plaintiff then once Plaintiff Nichols steps 5 outside the door to his home into the curtilage of his home with a loaded or 6 unloaded firearm (other than an antique unloaded firearm) he is in violation of the 7 three laws at issue in his MPSJ even if he does not step one foot outside the 8 curtilage of his home?

9 Plaintiff has bent over backwards to limit his case to an extremely narrow 10 challenge, unlike Peruta v. County of San Diego, ___ F.3d ___, 2014 WL 555862
 11 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014), should it ever become a binding precedent, invalidates 12 prohibitions on Open Carry, both loaded and unloaded, in far more places than 13 Plaintiff Nichols’ MPSJ or SAC seeks.

14 RR:6,3-17;[fn 5] – The MJ is improperly assuming facts from documents 15 which are in dispute and to which the MJ improperly overruled Plaintiff’s filed 16 objection.

17 RR:7,19-28;8,1-10 – Plaintiff’s challenge to California’s licensing scheme is 18 in the alternative. Should Plaintiff prevail in his MPSJ and other claims against 19 Defendant Harris, she can go home and this case be closed without this court 20 having to consider Plaintiff’s alternate challenges to the licensing scheme.

21 RR:8,10-16;9,1-10;10,1-10 – The MJ falsely claims “[T]he only provisions 22 specifically relating to open carry that the SAC squarely addresses concern the 23 population cap on counties that may issue open carry licenses.” The claim is 24 ludicrous and the law is not based on any degree of rural versus urban population 25 density. This fact was also in the pleadings. Plaintiff’s SAC and pleadings speak 26 for themselves.

27 RR:10,11-23;11,1-28 – Plaintiff’s claims are far more numerous and detailed 28 than the “four” truncated, fragmented claims the MJ purports. Stare Decisis dictates that those rights are guaranteed to Plaintiff in his home and the US Supreme Court has held “[T]he curtilage of the house...enjoys protection as part of the home itself.” Florida v. Jardines, 133 S. Ct. 1409 - Supreme Court (2013) at 1414. As such, the three laws at issue deny these rights to Plaintiff Nichols in his home and are therefore unconstitutional on their face.

RR:11 [fn 9] – F.R.C.P 8(a), (a)(2) and (a)(3) states that a pleading (SAC) “[M]ust contain... a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief; and (3) a demand for the relief sought, which may include relief in the alternative or different types of relief. Plaintiff Nichols filed such a SAC and Defendant Harris filed her Answer to his SAC. Neither the SAC nor Answer is the place where the merits of the case are argued. Defendant Harris and Plaintiff Nichols have argued vagueness in the pleadings far more extensively than the MJ states in [fn 9] which need not be repeated here.

RR:12,1-12 – A motion for partial summary judgment is exactly that – Partial. On a procedural note, Plaintiff’s Notice of Motion and Motion for Partial Summary Judgment was not limited to the Notice of Motion and the attached memorandum of points and authorities. Therefore Plaintiff’s claims are properly before this court via his MPSJ.

RR [fn 10] – Plaintiff has always alleged a Fourteenth Amendment challenge to PC 25850 based on race, a suspect classification requiring strict scrutiny. In his SAC not only is race alleged but Plaintiff references publications by Defendant Harris “The documents also contain breakdowns of arrests by race which shows that racial minorities are disproportionately arrested.” In her Answer to the SAC, Defendant Harris did not dispute the allegations. Indeed, she said the publications speak for themselves. Defendant Harris acknowledged her defeat on this Fourteenth Amendment allegation when she tried to defend the racist intent of the legislation by arguing that the Second Amendment condones race based criminal bans on the bearing of arms – “Some scholars even posit that the

1 Founding Fathers championed the Second Amendment, which Nichols invokes as 2 a weapon against allegedly racist laws, to try to legitimize Southern citizen “slave
 3 patrols” that terrorized enslaved African-Americans, and thereby to entice 4 Southern states to support the U.S. Constitution.” Defendant Harris’ MPA in 5 opposition to Plaintiff Nichols’ MPSJ at page 14, lines 12-16. Dkt #140.

6 RR:12,13-23;13,1-11 – In the literally hundreds of pages of Plaintiff’s MPSJ 7 including exhibits attached and by reference the MJ purports to only find “three 8 general arguments.” That is outrageous. This court should vacate its referral to 9 Magistrate Judge Segal for further proceedings (Dkt. #108) pursuant to Federal 10 Rule of Civil Procedure 73(b)(3) and disregard the RR filed by the MJ.

11 RR [fn 11] – The MJ says she is confused as to why the lack of self-defense 12 exceptions in the “plain text” of the three bans at issue in and of themselves 13 warrant their being overturned despite Plaintiff’s extensive arguments as to 14 “Why?” in the pleadings. Perhaps this short explanation will suffice? From 15 United States v. L. Cohen Grocery Co., 255 US 81 - Supreme Court (1921) to 16 Coates v. Cincinnati, 402 US 611 - Supreme Court (1971) to District of Columbia
 17 v. Heller, 128 S. Ct. 2783 - Supreme Court (2008) to McDonald v. City of Chicago, 18 Ill., 130 S. Ct. 3020 - Supreme Court (2010) the US Supreme Court has struck 19 down laws because they were facially invalid for exactly that kind of defect.

20 RR:15, 1-24 – Plaintiff has already stated the standards for an MPSJ in his 21 MPSJ.

22 RR:15,28-28;16,1-28;17,1-9 – Plaintiff has already objected to the RR 23 allowing the RJN and explained the effect and consequences of the MJ doing so.

24 RR:17,10-28;18:1-7 – Plaintiff’s facial challenge has been extensively 25 argued in the pleadings. Heller, McDonald, Moore were all facial challenges 26 under the Second Amendment which succeeded in overturning laws which were 27 not invalid in the interpretation of Salerno of the MJ. Indeed, Plaintiff’s Notice of 28 Supplemental Authority to Patel v. City of Los Angeles, Court of Appeals, 9th

1 Circuit No. 08-56567 en banc (filed Dec. 24 2013) should have clarified that 2 Salerno's "no set of circumstances" does not mean what the MJ thinks it means.
 3 Jackson, as noted, permits facial challenges far less encompassing than this court's 4 and the MJ interpretation of "facial."

5 The citation to United States v. Stevens, 559 U.S. 460, 472 (2010) does not 6 support the RR as the bans at issue prohibit only constitutionally protected conduct 7 by only those persons who fall within the scope of the Second and Fourth 8 Amendment protections and clearly "lacks any 'plainly legitimate sweep.'" Id.

9 RR:18:8-28 – Plaintiff never contended that the Second Amendment confers 10 a "blanket right."

11 RR:19:1-26 – United States v. Chovan, 735 F.3d 1127 (9th Cir. 2013) is the 12 binding prior panel decision on Plaintiff's MPSJ and is binding on all subsequent 13 9th Circuit decisions until overruled en banc or by the US Supreme Court.

14 RR:19-20 [fn 12] – Wrong! The Chovan court held that where the person 15 falls outside of the scope of the Second Amendment, intermediate scrutiny applies 16 in some cases and "[T]hat rational basis review is not appropriate. See Heller, 554 17 U.S. at 628 n. 27, 128 S.Ct. 2783 ("If all that was required to overcome the right to 18 keep and bear arms was a rational basis, the Second Amendment would be 19 redundant with the separate constitutional prohibitions on irrational laws, and 20 would have no effect.")...we reject rational basis review and conclude that some 21 sort of heightened scrutiny must apply." Id. at 1137. Plaintiff Nichols is not a 22 prohibited person. At a minimum, strict scrutiny applies to all of his claims.

23 RR:20:1-23 – Neither Defendant Harris nor Plaintiff Nichols filed a notice
 24 of supplemental authority to Peruta v. County of San Diego, __ F.3d __, 2014 WL 25 555862 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014). Neither Plaintiff Nichols nor Harris' attorney 26 believes that Peruta is currently binding on Plaintiff Nichols' case at this time.
 27 The order staying the mandate was filed on February 28, 2014.
 28 http://cdn.ca9.uscourts.gov/datastore/general/2014/03/03/10-56971\_order.pdf

1 RR:21:1-28;22,1-22; [fn 14] – In the highly unlikely case that Peruta ever 2 becomes binding on Plaintiff Nichols’ case, the decision is anything but “fatal” to 3 the Second Amendment parts of Plaintiff’s case.

4 The Peruta Court explicitly said that it was NOT upholding the 5 constitutionality of any state law. “The dissent curiously misinterprets our opinion 6 as ruling on the constitutionality of California statutes. We decline to respond to its 7 straw-man arguments.” Id at [fn 19].

8 “[I]f a challenged law does not implicate a core Second Amendment right, or 9 does not place a substantial burden on the Second Amendment right, we may apply 10 intermediate scrutiny. See, e.g., Chovan, 735 F.3d at 1138–39; cf. Heller v. District 11 of Columbia (Heller II), 670 F.3d 1244, 1257 (D.C. Cir. 2011) (“[A] regulation that 12 imposes a substantial burden upon the core right of self-defense protected by the 13 Second Amendment must have a strong justification, whereas a regulation that 14 imposes a less substantial burden should be proportionately easier to justify.”).”
15 Jackson v. San Francisco, slip op. No. 12-17803 (9th Cir. Mar. 25, 2014) at pg 12.

16 The challenged bans and California’s overall “regulatory” scheme implicate 17 core Second Amendment rights and place a substantial burden on the Second 18 Amendment right, therefore intermediate scrutiny is not allowed in this case even 19 if Defendant Harris had met her intermediate scrutiny burden as defined in Chovan 20 which she clearly did not.

21 The carrying of long guns was not at issue in Peruta. Indeed, not only was 22 the carrying of long guns never mentioned in the case, the decision presumed that 23 long guns did not exist. Under California law it is legal to openly carry unloaded 24 antique handguns and long guns (which include modern firing reproductions) in all 25 incorporated cities, counties and “city and county” as they are exempt from the 26 unloaded Open Carry bans.

27 “[T]he carrying of concealed weapons may be absolutely prohibited without 28 the infringement of any constitutional right, while a statute forbidding the bearing

1 of arms openly would be such an infringement." Peruta v. County of San Diego, 2 slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014) at pg 26.

3 "To be clear, we are not holding that the Second Amendment requires the 4 states to permit concealed carry." Peruta v. County of San Diego, slip op. No. 10-5 56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014) at pg 61.

6 The "preference" of the California Legislature is that firearms be carried 7 openly without a permit as even an antique handgun carried concealed requires a 8 permit with few exceptions the Peruta court found to not be meaningful.

9 As has been previously briefed, there is a blanket ban on concealed carry 10 throughout the state of California, even in one's home. Concealed carry is by 11 statutory exception. There is no analogous ban for Open Carry. Open Carry is by 12 default legal everywhere throughout the state of California. At issue in this case 13 are those parts of incorporated cities and unincorporated county territory where 14 hunters are exempt from the bans and, of course, Plaintiff Nichols' private 15 residence and motor vehicles. That is hardly a "broad challenge" into which the 16 MJ thinks she can inflate Plaintiff's case.

17 It is the Peruta case which was broad. Had the Peruta court (more likely 18 law clerks) bothered to read the Peruta Appellants Opening Brief, they would have 19 discovered in that brief that appellants "warned" the court that failure to grant the 20 relief the plaintiffs requested would result in invalidating California Penal Code 21 section 626.9 (PC 626.9) the California Gun-Free School Zones Act of 1995.

22 Although the manner of carrying a concealable firearm is restricted to either 23 concealed or Open Carry, the holder of a CCW license is exempt from the PC 24 626.9 prohibitions on the carrying of firearms, not just concealable ones. See PC 25 626.9(c)(4). Not only is the holder of a CCW permitted to carry a loaded or 26 unloaded handgun (concealed or openly depending upon his license) he can openly 27 carry long guns on every California State university and college campus and within 28

1 1,000 feet of a K-12 public or private school regardless of whether or not they are 2 located within an incorporated city or an unincorporated county.

3 Given that Plaintiff Nichols does not have a CCW, he is restricted to openly 4 carrying unloaded long guns in the K-12 school zones in unincorporated county 5 territory and unloaded antique long guns in the K-12 school zones in incorporated 6 cities. Outside of those restricted areas he is free to openly carry an unloaded 7 antique handgun and unloaded antique long gun in incorporated cities as well and in 8 unincorporated county territory. In unincorporated county territory where the 9 discharge of a firearm is prohibited, Plaintiff Nichols can openly carry an unloaded 10 long-gun, including within 1,000 feet of a K-12 public or private school pursuant 11 to PC 626.9.

12 A CCW holder is also exempt from the prohibitions on carrying a 13 concealable loaded weapon in most of California's state and local government 14 buildings. See PC 171b which includes the unloaded Open Carry of handguns and 15 long guns as that was one of the exemptions to AB 144 & AB 1527. Loaded 16 handguns must still be carried in a manner pursuant to the CCW license (concealed 17 or openly) and PC 171b.

18 Schools and government buildings are "sensitive places" under Heller where 19 the bearing of arms can be prohibited. Had PC 626.9 been at issue in this case, 20 Defendant Harris would undoubtedly have argued that the 1,000 feet from a K-12 21 public or private school are sensitive places as well.

22 Should the Peruta decision ever become binding, the Peruta Court, in 23 addition to an "opposite world" reading of Heller's embracement of the long-24 standing prohibitions on concealed carry, results in the "shall-issue" of CCWs 25 enabling virtually everyone to carry loaded concealed firearms and long guns very 26 nearly everywhere in the state. Florida, with half the population of California, has 27 over 1.2 million CCW licenses issued as of 2/28/2014 ->

1 http://www.freshfromflorida.com/content/download/7471/118627/Number\_of\_Lic
 2 ensees\_By\_Type.pdf

3 Perhaps the MJ overlooked the Gun-Free School Zone Map of the City of 4 Redondo Beach which was included in the pleadings? No matter, it is attached to 5 this document as Exhibit A as are the "Open Carry" maps from the City of 6 Hermosa Beach (Exhibit B) -> <http://www.hermosabch.org/index.aspx?page=200>
 7 and the City of Manhattan Beach (Exhibit C) -> 8 <http://www.citymb.info/home/showdocument?id=7103>

9 These cities have relatively few K-12 schools and no university or college 10 campuses and yet one can plainly see that there is very little public place left where 11 one can carry even an unloaded antique handgun without a CCW whereas those 12 with a CCW can carry a modern loaded firearm virtually everywhere.

13 If this court believes that Peruta is binding, that the state must permit the 14 carrying of loaded firearms but is allowed to determine the manner of carrying of 15 firearms in public then let us take a look at the ramifications in a County that is not 16 fully incorporated – Los Angeles County – Exhibit D ->
 17 <http://ceo.lacounty.gov/forms/08%20Map%20&%20Cities.pdf>

18 More than 65 percent of Los Angeles County -- 2,653.5 square miles -- is 19 unincorporated. 1 million people live in those areas -> 20 <http://www.lacounty.gov/wps/portal/lac/residents/unincorporated>

21 "Los Angeles County Municipal Code 13.66.010 Use of weapons permitted 22 when.

23 This chapter, except as otherwise provided in this Part 1, does not prohibit the 24 discharge of any rifle, shotgun, pistol, revolver or firearm of any kind, or the 25 shooting of any arrow or other missile, when necessary so to do to protect life or 26 property, or to destroy or kill any predatory or dangerous animal.

27 (Ord. 7730 § 1, 1960: Ord. 7381 § 1 (part), 1958: Ord. 1769 Art. 3 § 302, 1929.)"

1 Take a look at Exhibit D. If Peruta is binding on this case then it becomes 2 legal to openly carry loaded and unloaded handguns and long guns without a 3 permit in all of those unincorporated areas shaded gray (as described above). One 4 of those gray areas is just a few blocks from where Plaintiff Nichols lives which 5 was mentioned in the pleadings. Peruta magnifies that particular 14th Amendment 6 equal protection claim of Plaintiff 1 million fold in Los Angeles County alone.
7 Contrary to the conclusion of the MJ that Second Amendment equal protection 8 claims are subject to rational review, they are subject to strict scrutiny pursuant to 9 Chovan. Of course, crossing an invisible line just a few blocks from his home on 10 one side of which it is legal to openly carry a loaded, modern firearm and on the 11 other side (where Plaintiff lives) being restricted to carrying an unloaded antique 12 does not survive rational review, even if Heller, McDonald, Chovan, Peruta or 13 Jackson allowed rational review which they clearly do not.

14 It is obvious that Peruta brought the “broad based” challenge, not Plaintiff 15 Nichols.

16 Peruta did not apply Chovan’s historical analysis and by doing so created an 17 in-circuit split as well as a circuit split with every single Federal Court which has 18 had a concealed carry case come before it, not to mention every single state court 19 of appeals. “Rather than employing the straightforward methodology prescribed by 20 Chovan, the majority wanders off in a different labyrinthian path, both in its 21 analysis of the Second Amendment right at issue and its analysis of the 22 government regulation in question. In doing so, it conflicts with the instruction of 23 the Supreme Court, the holdings of our sister circuits, and our own circuit 24 precedent.” Peruta slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014) at 101 25 (THOMAS, Circuit Judge, dissenting).

26 The Peruta Court itself acknowledges that those 19th Century cases stood for 27 the proposition that concealed carry fell outside the scope of the Second 28 Amendment at the time of ratification of the 14th Amendment. Peruta

1 reinterpreted those decisions to apply to what it perceived to be a modern 2 preference for the concealed carry of handguns over the open carry of handguns in 3 California.

4 “California, through its legislative scheme, has taken a different course than 5 most nineteenth-century state legislatures, expressing a preference for concealed 6 rather than open carry.” Peruta slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014) at 7 55-56. That “legislative scheme” is of course very recent as the bans on openly 8 carrying unloaded, modern firearms did not go into effect until January 1st of 9 2012/2013. It has already been plead that at the time of ratification of the 14th 10 Amendment, California had a blanket ban on the carrying of concealed weapons 11 excepting no one, not even police, except for travelers while actually on a journey.

12 This Court is bound under Heller, McDonald and the prior panel decision in 13 Chovan as to what the Framers of the Second and Fourteenth Amendment 14 understood the Second Amendment right to mean.

15 The Second Amendment, as historically understood, did not stand for the 16 proposition that there was only a right to carry weapons concealed and Peruta, 17 unlike the MJ, did not reach that conclusion.

18 RR:23,1-6 – Nowhere does the Peruta Court say that rational basis review 19 applies to any law under the Second Amendment. At several points it states that 20 rational review cannot, per Heller, be applied “Excluding, of course, rational basis 21 review. See Heller, 554 U.S. at 628 n.27.” Peruta slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir.
22 Feb. 13, 2014) at fn 14. Nordyke v. King, 681 F.3d 1041 (9th Cir. 2012) involved 23 the unloaded open carry of firearms, modern and antique, without a permit in a 24 government building on the Alameda County Fairgrounds. During the final en 25 banc hearing the County of Alameda “discovered” an exception to its ordinance 26 allowing the open carrying of unloaded firearms at that location without a permit.
27 Defendant Harris has not “discovered” any exception other than the “grave,

1 immediate danger” exception which the Peruta court said failed to pass 2 constitutional muster.

3 Plaintiff Nichols is not seeking to carry any firearm in any government 4 building and is prevented from carrying loaded firearms and unloaded modern 5 firearms in even the curtilage of his home.

6 RR:23,6-25 – Given that Heller, McDonald, Chovan and even Peruta all 7 reject “rational review” it is not necessary to respond to the Constitutionally 8 precluded rational basis review the MJ now undertakes except to say that Plaintiff 9 has argued in his SAC and other pleadings that the challenged laws do not survive 10 even the rational basis test.

11 RR:23 [fn 15] – That should be construed as granting Defendant Harris’ 12 objections to Plaintiff’s notices of supplemental authority to which Plaintiff here 13 again objects.

14 RR:24,1-28;25,1-16;26,1-8 – The Peruta Court did NOT find that Open 15 Carry is Constitutionally illegal in California as previously noted. The MJ applies 16 rational review which is precluded as noted above, precluded even by Peruta 17 which the MJ believes is a silver bullet against Plaintiff’s case.

18 RR:25 [fn 17] – As even the Peruta court acknowledged these “exceptions” 19 do not pass constitutional muster. “Thus, the question is not whether the California 20 scheme (in light of San Diego County’s policy) allows some people to bear arms 21 outside the home in some places at some times; instead, the question is whether it 22 allows the typical responsible, law-abiding citizen to bear arms in public for the 23 lawful purpose of self-defense. The answer to the latter question is a resounding 24 “no.” Peruta slip op. No. 10-56971 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2014) at 49.

25 RR:26 [fn 18] A criminal law being race-neutral in the plain text reading 26 does NOT mean that it is constitutional. This point was extensively argued in the 27 pleadings. The sole motivating factor in enacting the law was race. Defendant 28 Harris conceded that point when she argued “Some scholars even posit that the

1 Founding Fathers championed the Second Amendment, which Nichols invokes as 2 a weapon against allegedly racist laws, to try to legitimize Southern citizen "slave
3 patrols" that terrorized enslaved African-Americans, and thereby to entice 4 Southern states to support the U.S. Constitution." Defendant Harris' MPA in 5 opposition to Plaintiff Nichols' MPSJ at page 14, lines 12-16. Dkt #140.

6 This court will no doubt divine some other motive not reflected either in the 7 legislative record or the extensive excerpts from the bill which enacted the ban 8 Plaintiff Nichols submitted into the record and incorporated by reference in his 9 MPSJ. In which case, Plaintiff Nichols has already proven by more than a 10 preponderance of the evidence "that racial discrimination was a substantial or 11 motivating factor in the adoption of [PC 25850]" Hunter v. Underwood, 471 US 12 222 - Supreme Court (1985) at 225 and that Defendant Harris has failed to submit 13 even the slightest shred of "evidence that the same decision would have resulted 14 had the impermissible purpose not been considered." 730 F. 2d, at 617." Id at 225.

15 RR:26, 9-25;27,1-15 – As previously noted, and extensively argued in the 16 pleadings, Plaintiff Nichols has always asserted a 14th Amendment challenge. It 17 has been argued since his case was first filed and the allegations are both in his 18 SAC and in his MPSJ.

19 RR:27,16-28;28,1-28;29,1-23;30,1-3 – There are no doubt many reasons 20 why this court is not allowed to take judicial notice of documents which are in 21 dispute and presume facts from those disputed documents. This case is one of 22 those reasons. The MJ presumes that Plaintiff Nichols is "White" when he is in 23 fact of mixed race and Plaintiff has already proven by more than a preponderance 24 of the evidence that PC 25850 is disproportionately enforced against all minorities 25 be they "Black," "Hispanic" or "Other". Plaintiff will file a declaration stating that 26 he is of mixed race which will satisfy any standing defect perceived by the MJ.

27 RR:29 [fn 19] The evidence that Plaintiff Nichols has submitted clear and 28 convincing evidence that race was the sole motivating factor. What more is he

1 required to submit? To this day, race is the acknowledged motivating factor in the 2 enactment of the ban as UCLA Law Professor Adam Winkler so eloquently 3 described here -> http://www.theatlantic.com/magazine/archive/2011/09/the-
 4 secret-history-of-guns/308608/

5 RR:30,4-18;31-35,1-24 – The MJ now attempts to erase the Fourth 6 Amendment from the Constitution relying primarily on People v. Delong, 11 Cal.
 7 App. 3d 786, 791-92 (1970) and, of course, Salerno, ignoring Plaintiff's in-home, 8 motor vehicle and firearms Plaintiff is still not prohibited from carrying in public 9 challenges to the laws, to name a few.

10 In Delong, “Appellant was not charged with violation of any firearm statute, 11 but with the possession of marijuana.” Id at 790. Possession of marijuana was 12 illegal in 1970. Delong also said “Since the statutes relating to inspection of the 13 firearms are essentially the same, it is not necessary to discuss the applicability of 14 the one or the other of the statutes.” Putting aside the 4th Amendment infirmities of 15 this 44 year old decision, the right to keep and bear arms is fundamental.
 16 Marijuana possession is not or at least was not at the time. Fourth Amendment 17 cases are fact-based. This differentiates Delong from Plaintiff's case.

18 Given that the MJ is allowed an unlimited number of pages to make her case 19 and Plaintiff is limited to 20 in this objection, he refers this court to his notice of 20 supplemental authority regarding Patel v. City of Los Angeles, Court of Appeals, 21 9th Circuit No. 08-56567 (filed December 24, 2013) Dkt # 150 which has attached 22 a true and complete copy of the decision. Plaintiff also refers this court to the 23 pleadings in his case in which the distinctions, which the MJ conveniently omits in 24 her RR, are well pleaded.

25 More importantly, the MJ misstates Plaintiff's challenges to PC25850(b). It 26 is the mere refusal to “voluntarily consent” to the search which results in the 27 criminal conduct and the violation of the 4th Amendment, even in places where 28 Plaintiff submits he has an undisputed right to carry a firearm, such as his home

1 and in those public places where the carrying of at least some firearms (antiques) is 2 not prohibited. It is this which makes this subsection facially invalid under 3 Fuentes, Patel, and Arizona v. Hicks, 480 US 321 - Supreme Court (1987) to name 4 but a few.

5 Perhaps a Norman Rockwell example will simplify things for this court?
6 Suppose Plaintiff Nichols is setting on his front porch in a rocking chair with a 7 single barrel, single shot shotgun in his lap and perhaps the obligatory hound-dog 8 is asleep at his side. A police officer passing by sees Plaintiff, enters his yard, 9 which the California Courts have construed to be a "public place" and demands 10 that Plaintiff hand over his shot-gun for inspection to see if it is loaded. Plaintiff 11 inquires of the police officer if he has a warrant, probable cause or any exigent 12 circumstance? The police officer says he does not and does not need any of the 13 above because PC 25850(b) "authorizes" him to inspect the firearm to see if it is 14 loaded and if plaintiff does not "voluntarily" consent to the search and seizure of 15 his firearm then he will be arrested. If Plaintiff says he will not consent to the 16 search and seizure he is in violation of the law even if he says he will not 17 physically resist the police officer from taking the firearm from his person.

18 And don't forget, this particular subdivision does not require that police 19 officers inspect every firearm they see, it leaves police officers with the unbridled 20 discretion of choosing whom they will and will not search. As the record shows, 21 by a three to one margin they choose minorities over Whites, which was the sole 22 purpose of the subdivision in the first place.

23 RR:35,25-28;36,1-3 – Defendant Harris has failed to raise any triable issues 24 of fact but if this court adopts certain sections of the RR hostile to Plaintiff's case 25 then it appears that a jury trial will be necessary. For example, the MJ claims she 26 is unable to discern a racial motivation for enacting the Black Panther Loaded 27 Open Carry ban. Plaintiff is certain that a racially representative jury from the 28 County of Los Angeles will find the racist intent of PC 25850 invisible to the MJ.

1 RR:36-44 - There are several procedural bars to this court accepting the RR, 2 not the least of which are: Defendant Harris has filed two concurrent oppositions to 3 Plaintiff Nichols' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment (MPSJ); the Complaint 4 raises issues of fact which if proved (before a jury trial if need be) would support 5 the granting of the relief requested by Plaintiff (regardless of whether or not this 6 court believes Plaintiff will succeed at trial); the uncontested factual allegations 7 compel a denial of Defendant Harris' MJP and compel granting Plaintiff Nichols' 8 MPSJ; matters outside of the pleadings were presented to the MJ by Defendant 9 Harris and to which the MJ relied upon in reaching her conclusions; if not 10 excluded by this court, Harris' MJP is converted into a Rule 56 Motion for 11 Summary Judgment; FRCP 12(d) provides that when a court converts a MJP into 12 a MSJ it shall provide "all parties...reasonable opportunity to present all the 13 material that is pertinent to the motion."; failure to provide actual notice of the 14 courts intent to convert the MJP prejudices Plaintiff Nichols; This court "must 15 "draw all reasonable inferences in favor of the non-movant" in addressing a Rule 16 12(c) motion, Sheppard v. Beerman, 18 F.3d 147, 150 (2d Cir.), cert. denied, ____ 17 U.S. ____, 115 S.Ct. 73, 130 L.Ed.2d 28 (1994), and "[t]his standard is 'applied 18 with particular strictness when the plaintiff complains of a civil rights violation," 19 id." Shechter v. Comptroller of City of New York, 79 F. 3d 265 - Court of Appeals, 20 2nd Circuit (1996) at 270.

21 "To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual 22 matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.'" 23 Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678, 129 S.Ct. 1937, 173 L.Ed.2d 868 (2009)
 24 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570, 127 S.Ct. 1955). A claim is facially plausible 25 "when the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the 26 reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the misconduct alleged." Id. at 27 678, 129 S.Ct. 1937." Somers v. Apple, Inc., 729 F. 3d 953 - Court of Appeals, 9th 28 Circuit (2013) at 959-960.

1 This is not the first Rule 12 motion to come before this court and this court 2 is well aware of the legal requirements for granting a Rule 12 motion. In her 44 3 page RR the MJ fails to state why any perceived defects cannot be cured by 4 amendment, supplemental pleadings or declarations. For that reason alone, the 5 MJP and the dismissal with prejudice must be denied.

6 The MJ improperly converted Plaintiff's MPSJ into a solely facial MSJ and 7 continued her analysis based on a misinterpretation of Peruta applying "rational 8 review" and a broader interpretation of Salerno than Patel allows and which 9 Jackson now forbids.

10 CONCLUSION

11 Because of the reasons stated above and herein this court is compelled to:
 12 disregard the Report and Recommendation by the Magistrate Judge, deny the MJP 13 by Defendant Harris and to grant Plaintiff Nichols' motion for partial summary 14 judgment. This court should hold that Plaintiff has a right to openly carry loaded 15 & unloaded firearms, both antique and modern, in those places where Plaintiff is 16 not prohibited from openly carrying unloaded antiques and hunters are exempt.

 18 "Constitutional rights are enshrined with the scope they were understood to 19 have when the people adopted them, whether or not future legislatures or (yes) 20 even future judges think that scope too broad." Heller at 2821.
