PRAECIPE

Defendants, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully note the following:

An error in the legislative process has been identified, but it should not affect the instant matter. The License to Carry a Pistol Second Emergency Amendment Act of 2014 (Bill No. 20-1045) was enacted in December 2014 and expired on April 6, 2015. There was a gap in legislative authority between when that legislation expired and the temporary legislation (the License to Carry a Pistol Temporary Amendment Act of 2014, Bill No. 20-927) became effective on May 5, 2015. There also are some substantive differences between the Temporary Legislation (Bill No. 20-927, now in effect) and the Permanent Legislation (Bill No. 20-930, projected to become law on June 16, 2015).<sup>1</sup> However, the two provisions challenged in the instant matter—

---

<sup>1</sup> The License to Carry a Pistol Congressional Review Emergency Declaration Resolution of 2015 (PR No. 21-173) and the License to Carry a Pistol Congressional Review Emergency Amendment Act of 2015 (Bill No. 21-221) were introduced and approved unanimously at today's legislative session of the Council. See http://dccouncil.us/files/user\_uploads/event\_testimony/June\_2\_2015\_Leg\_Mtg.pdf. Assuming the legislation is signed by the Mayor, the Temporary Legislation (Bill No. 20-927) will be repealed, leaving only the Second Emergency Legislation (Bill No. 20-1045) in effect until the permanent legislation becomes effective on or about June 16.

D.C. Official Code §§ 22-4506(a) and 7-2509.11—are identical in both versions of the legislation, and the gap in legislative authority should not affect the instant litigation.

DATE: June 2, 2015

Respectfully submitted,

KARL A. RACINE
Attorney General for the District of Columbia
