SHORT TITLE: Villanueva v. Becerra	CASE NUMBER: 17CECG03093
---------------------------------------	-----------------------------

ATTACHMENT (Number): 1h*(This Attachment may be used with any Judicial Council form.)*

The Villanueva v. Becerra lawsuit was filed in Fresno County Superior Court on September 7, 2017, as an action for declaratory relief. The Holt v. Becerra lawsuit was filed in Riverside County Superior Court on November 30, 2017, as an action for declaratory relief and a petition for writ of mandate. An amended pleading was filed in the Holt lawsuit on January 2, 2018. Both lawsuits challenge regulations promulgated by the California Department of Justice ("DOJ") for the registration of "bullet-button" assault weapons. Both lawsuits contend that the regulations were promulgated in violation of the California Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"), specifically that the regulations exceed the scope of DOJ's APA exemption for regulations implementing the registration process, and that the regulations are inconsistent with the Assault Weapons Control Act. The Holt lawsuit also challenges DOJ's regulations as impermissibly vague under the California and federal constitutions. Both lawsuits seek an injunction prohibiting Defendants from enforcing the regulations.

The Villanueva plaintiffs are six individuals and one association. Three of these individuals are alleged to reside in Fresno County. The Holt plaintiffs are five individuals and two associations. One of these individuals is alleged to reside in Riverside County.

The Villanueva lawsuit names as defendants Xavier Becerra (California Attorney General, in his official capacity), Stephen J. Lindley (Director of the California Department of Justice's Bureau of Firearms, in his official capacity), and the California Department of Justice. The Holt lawsuit names these same defendants, as well as Debra M. Cornez (Director of the Office of Administrative Law, erroneously named as Debra N. Cornez, in her official capacity) and Betty T. Yee (State Controller, in her official capacity).

In the Villanueva lawsuit, a preliminary injunction motion and Defendants' demurrer will be heard on January 30, 2018. In the Holt lawsuit, a preliminary injunction motion will be heard on March 15, 2018. The deadline to respond to the amended pleading in the Holt lawsuit is February 1, 2018, and the Holt defendants anticipate filing a demurrer that will be heard on the same day as the preliminary injunction motion, March 15, 2018.
