Ms. Molly C. Dwyer Clerk, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit 95 Seventh Street San Francisco, CA 94103

RE: Charles Nichols v. Edmund Brown, Jr., et al 9th Cir. No.: 14-55873; Rule 28(j) letter

Dear Ms. Dwyer:

Plaintiff-Appellant Nichols submits Parker v. District of Columbia, 478 F.3d 370 (2007), aff'd sub nom. District of Columbia v. Heller, 554 U.S. 570 (2008) as supplemental authority under FRAP Rule 28(j).

Heller at 2787 affirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Parker reversed the judgment of the district court and remanded. "[T]he district court is ordered to grant summary judgment to Heller consistent with the prayer for relief contained in appellants' complaint." at 401.

Heller's Complaint asked for a permanent injunction from enforcing D.C., code sections "[I]n such a manner as to bar the possession of functional firearms within the home or on possessed land; and permanently enjoining defendants from enforcing [code sections] in such a manner as to forbid the carrying of a firearm within one's home or possessed land without a license." (italics and emphasis added) and for "Declaratory relief consistent with the injunction;" Complaint at 9.

Nichols seeks "[P]rospective injunctive and declaratory relief against various

State of California prohibitory Penal Code laws which prohibit him from openly carrying loaded and unloaded in the curtilage of his home, on his private property..." (emphasis added) Appellant Opening Brief at 1.

Even a myopic view of the scope of Heller extends beyond the walls of one's home to property accessible to the public. Heller facially invalidated laws which applied to licensing and carrying in home and on property. McDonald v. City of Chicago, Ill., 130 S. Ct. 3020 (2010) facially invalidated citywide prohibitions which applied to one's home and his property and in public places (Opening Brief at 47). Stare decisis demands that the California Open Carry bans be facially invalidated.

Likewise, stare decisis demands that Mr. Nichols be issued an unrestricted license to openly carry a loaded handgun and be granted the relief he requested in the district court and on appeal.

Case: 14-55873, 07/04/2017, ID: 10496761, DktEntry: 83-1, Page 3 of 3

"It is the height of irony...the defendant...may only carry a weapon while immured behind the doors of his home but cannot use it an inch past his threshold." Overturf dissent at 9. See Opening Brief at 43, 71.

The body of this letter contains 344 words.

Sincerely,

/s/ Charles Nichols
