Hi Neal

We will consent to your filing of a reply brief if you stipulate to us filing a surreply of equal length and that you convey that stipulation to the Court in your motion to file a reply brief.. If you do not consent to us filing a surreply, then we do not consent to your reply brief.

However we would prefer to file a joint motion that asks the Court for leave for you to do a reply, and for us to do a surreply of equal length seven days from the filing of your reply.

Thank you

Alan

Alan and Stephen,

We intend to file a motion for leave to file a reply in support of our petition for rehearing en banc in Young v. Hawaii. Would you please let me know if you consent to the filing of the reply? We plan to file tomorrow, so I'd greatly appreciate it if you could let me know your position as soon as possible.

Thanks,
Neal
