Re: Parker (Clay) v. State of California et al. – S215265

Dear Counsel:

Please be advised that the court could set this case for argument within the next few months.

Schedules showing the court's oral argument dates and locations for the next twelve months can be found at http://www.courts.ca.gov/supremecourt.htm by clicking on "calendars," and then accessing the "Oral Argument Calendar Dates" documents.

Any counsel who believes good cause exists not to schedule oral argument for a particular date should inform the court immediately. Once the court files an order setting this case for oral argument, that date will not be changed absent exceptional cause, such as a medical emergency.

Immediately upon filing of the calendar setting this case for argument, the court will send counsel an email communication with (1) a copy of that document; (2) an appearance sheet, upon which counsel must provide the names of the attorney or attorneys who will present argument, along with further instructions governing any request to divide argument time; and (3) a general notice regarding appearance for oral argument before the court.

If a party wishes to bring to the court's attention new authorities, new legislation, or other matters that were not available in time to be included in the party's brief on the merits, the party must comply with California Rules of Court, rules 8.630(d) and 8.520(d).

Sincerely,

JORGE E. NAVARRETE Court Administrator and Clerk of the Supreme Court
