NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS: DISCLOSURE TO PARTIES

The above-referenced case has been recently transferred to this Court for all purposes. The first hearing before this Court is set for Friday, March 16, 2018. Upon preliminary review of the matter, the Court finds no grounds for its disqualification under Civil Procedure Code section 170.1. While it finds no basis for disqualification, the Court, in an abundance of caution, discloses to all parties the following fact: The Court, in his individual and private capacity, knows and has in the past contributed financially to campaigns of John Chiang and Betty Yee. If any party intends to move to disqualify the Court based upon said disclosure, it shall notify the Clerk in Department 28 no later than 4:00 p.m., on Wednesday, March 14, 2018, i.e., prior to the issuance of any tentative ruling regarding the matter on calendar.
