

FILED

DEC 17 2019

CLERK US DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
BY COJ DEPUTY

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Fred MAGANA (4),

Defendant.

Case No.: 19-cr-4768-GPC

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Under Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure pertaining to pretrial discovery, and General Order No. 514 of the United States District Court for the Southern District of California ("General Order No. 514"), to prevent premature disclosure of evidence to other targets, subjects, and witnesses of ongoing investigations, and to safeguard the sensitive financial information and personally identifiable information of third parties,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Any discoverable documents that were filed under seal are unsealed for the limited purpose of allowing the United States to provide them to each defendant and defense counsel ("the Defense") in discovery.

2. The United States is authorized to disclose to the Defense grand jury matter in order to fulfill its statutory and Constitutional discovery obligations in this case. The

1 term "grand jury matter" as used in this Order means (1) transcripts of testimony before
2 the grand jury, and (2) documents or objects marked as grand jury exhibits.

3 3. All discovery produced by the United States in this case is for use by the
4 Defense solely for investigating, preparing for trial, trial, and any appeals of this matter
5 and for no other purpose.

6 4. The Defense may not distribute, disseminate, disclose, or exhibit discovery
7 materials to any person who is not a part of the defense, except as further set forth
8 herein.

9 5. Defense counsel shall sign a copy of this Protective Order, acknowledging
10 its terms and agreeing to comply with them, and ensure that every member of his/her
11 defense team is advised of the Order and agrees in writing to be bound by its terms.

12 6. The Defense shall take all reasonable steps to: (a) maintain the 13 confidentiality of the discovery, and (b) safeguard the discovery produced in this case
14 from disclosure to or review by any third party.

15 7. The Defense may share discovery materials with any investigators,
16 consultants or experts retained by the defense in connection with this case, provided
17 that the defense informs any such individual(s) of this Order and obtains his/her written
18 agreement to be bound by its terms.

19 8. The Defense may show witnesses discovery materials as necessary for the 20 preparation of the defense, but may not give copies of the materials to witnesses absent
21 further Order of the Court.

22 9. The Defense shall return any and all copies of the discovery to the United
23 States within 90 days of the conclusion of the proceedings in the above-referenced case,
24 including any appeal.

25 10. To the extent that any of the criminal discovery materials contain any 26 individual's personal information, within the meaning of General Order 514, the
27 Defense shall redact any filings referencing or containing said materials in a manner
28 consistent with General Order 514.

1 11. To the extent that any criminal discovery materials were filed with the
2 court under seal, the Defense shall file a motion to unseal the documents with notice to
3 the United States before any pleadings or exhibits referencing or containing said
4 materials may be publically filed.

5 12. If defense counsel withdraws or is disqualified from participation in this
6 case, the Defense shall return any discovery produced pursuant to the Order shall be
7 returned to the United States within 10 days.

8
9 SO ORDERED.

10
11 DATED: 12/18, 2019

12
13 HON. GONZALO P. CURIEL
14 United States District Court
15 Southern District of California

16 I have reviewed the foregoing protective order, and consent to its entry and agree
17 to be bound by its terms.

18
19
20 DATE: 12-10, 2019

21 Ezekiel Cortez
22 Attorney for Defendant
23 FRED MAGANA (4)
24
25
26
27
28