OFFICER'S FIRST REPORT15-43394-OF

Officer JOHN MASTRATI #472

Date/Time Report: 8/21/15 @ 1249 HRS. 08/24/2015 1831 JC

On 8/21/15 at approximately 0926 hours, I was dispatched to Scrambler's on Reservoir Avenue for the reporting party stating that she was in a verbal argument with her husband last night and stated that during the fight, he got out an unloaded firearm and told her to use it on him. She also stated that she had left the house that night and stayed at a friends and was concerned about her husband because she has not heard from him.

Upon my arrival to Scrambler's, I identified the caller as Kim Caniglia, DOB [REDACTED] Kim stated to me that last night she got in to an argument with her husband who she identified as Edward Caniglia, DOB [REDACTED] over a coffee mug. She stated that they are currently going through a divorce and they usually end up in a verbal argument over certain things.

Kim stated that when they argued over the coffee mug, he went to the bedroom and grabbed the firearm which was unloaded and had the magazine in the other hand and stated to Kim to end his life. At that point, Kim stated that she told Edward that she was going to call 911 and that's when Edward placed the firearm and the magazine on the counter and went outside in the back yard. At that time Kim stated that she took the firearm and the magazine and hit it in the bedroom. She stated that when Edward came in he stated that he was going to leave to think about things. Kim stated that Edward then came back an hour later and asked her why they can't work things out and what was going on with their marriage. Kim stated at this point when Edward came home that she had left and stayed at the Econo Lodge on New London to get away from Edward for the night. Kim stated that Edward had called her at approximately 9:30 that night and asked her to come home and that he misses her. Kim stated that she told him that she wasn't and he sounded upset on the phone. Kim stated to me that she had not heard from him since that last phone call at 9:30 pm and that she was concerned about going to the house and wasn't sure what she was going to walk in to. She stated that she was not scared for her own life but more scared of walking in and not knowing if Edward had committed suicide.

I took the number for Edward. While speaking to him on the phone, I asked Edward if he was at home; he stated that he was and I asked him if I could go by the house if he would come outside. Edward said that he would be home and that he was willing to talk to me.

Officer Russell, Officer Smith and Sgt. Barth and I responded to [REDACTED] where I was able to make contact with Edward. He came outside and while speaking to him, he appeared normal. I asked Edward what had happened the night before and he stated to me that they got in to an argument over a coffee mug. He stated that he is going through a divorce and is just sick of the arguments and at this time he took out his hand gun and the magazine in the other hand which was unloaded at the time and he asked Kim to just end his life because he can't take it any more. Edward then stated that she stated that she was going to call 911 and that's when he placed the firearm down on the counter and he left for one hour. Edward stated that when he came back, he got in to another small argument with Kim and that's when she left and stayed out for the night. He also stated that he did call her at 9:30 and asked her to come back home and she did not. Edward stated that he is not suicidal and that he uses prayer to help him. He stated that he had a friend who committed suicide and he would never do that to his family. Due to the statements that were made that corroborated what Kim had said and Edward admitting for her to take his life with the handgun, I asked Edward to get checked out by rescue and to talk to someone at the hospital which he willing agreed to do.

Rescue responded on scene shortly after and transported Edward to Kent County Hospital.

Kim arrived on scene shortly after and per Captain Henry, he requested that we seize the two firearms that were in the house. Kim let us in the house and pointed out where the firearms were; which one was under the bed and the magazine was located in her bureau under her clothes where she had hid it. The second firearm was located in the garage behind the work bench which was also confiscated.

I brought both firearms back to CPD headquarters until further investigation of this incident. The two firearms that were confiscated was a Colt model MK4 Series 80, 380; the second was a Smith & Wesson 9ml. I logged them in to evidence and received property #15-3043-PR for the colt MK4 with magazine, serial #MU46638; 15-3044-PR for the Smith & Wesson with magazine, Serial #TEA8661; 15-3045 for 380 ammunition quantity of 5 rounds; 15-3046 for 9ml ammunition 8 rounds and 15-3047 for a black magazine holder (1). All property was placed in secure locker #17.

I also completed a Seizure Report for the firearms and ammunition along with the black magazine holder; 2 firearm recovery forms were also completed. It should be noted that in further speaking with Kim, she stated that she was not in fear for her life from Edward but was more worried about Edward taking his own life.

Nothing further to report.
