APPEARANCES:

FOR THE DEFENDANT:
DeSISTO LAW

BY: PATRICK K. CUNNINGHAM, ESQ.

FOR THE PLAINTIFF:
THOMAS W. LYONS, III, ESQ.

1 nine lines down and go to the middle of the paragraph
2 where it states, "wife shared that her hope was that her
3 husband could get some help here in the ER"; do you see
4 that?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Do you remember sharing that concern or hope?

7 A It was taken out of context.

8 Q What was taken out of context?

9 A This statement.

10 Q Let me start with this: Did you make the statement that
11 you hoped that your husband could get some help in the ER
12 or something similar to that statement?

13 A Yes.

14 Q You just expressed to me that it was taken out of 15 context. Could you explain to me how it was taken out of 16 context, how you believe it was taken out of context?

17 A Because prior to that I had told her that he was not
18 happy, he was in a depression and I didn't know why and I
19 didn't know how to help him and I hoped that he could get
20 help in the ER.

21 Q So you were concerned about his depression?

22 A Yes. There was something wrong with my husband.

23 Q And you hoped that he could get some type of help for
24 that while he was in the hospital?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Just to clarify, I believe that when I asked this
3 earlier, you didn't express that hope to any of the
4 police officers at the scene, that you hoped he could get
5 some medical help?

6 MR. LYONS: Objection.

7 A No.

8 MR. CUNNINGHAM: You did not. If you give me
9 just five minute, maybe not even that long, I may be 10 finished.

11 (break taken)

12 Q Just a couple more.

13 A Of course.

14 Q Do you have any memory of informing any Cranston police
15 officer that you wanted the guns removed from the 16 household for your husband's well-being?

17 A No.

18 Q Do you have any memory of informing a Cranston police
19 officer that you did not want the firearm that was in the 20 garage in the house --

21 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Sorry, strike that. Sorry
22 that was a bad question.

23 A Thank you.

24 MR. CUNNINGHAM: Let me try that again.
