Description of Appeal, Proceeding or Application and Statement of Issues

Description: If an appeal, briefly describe the paper appealed from. If the appeal is from an order, specify the relief requested and whether the motion was granted or denied. If an original proceeding commenced in this court or transferred pursuant to CPLR 7804(g), briefly describe the object of proceeding. If an application under CPLR 5704, briefly describe the nature of the ex parte order to be reviewed.

The NRA appeals the ruling by the Supreme Court denying the NRA's petition for an order pursuant to CPLR 2304 and CPLR 3103 fixing conditions, modifying, or issuing a protective order with respect to a subpoena ad testificandum issued by Letitia James, the Attorney General of New York, to Lt. Col. Oliver North, scheduled for August 20, 2019, in order to protect the NRA's privileged information from disclosure.

Issues: Specify the issues proposed to be raised on the appeal, proceeding, or application for CPLR 5704 review, the grounds for reversal, or modification to be advanced and the specific relief sought on appeal.

The NRA seeks an order fixing conditions or modifying the subpoena to its fiduciary and a current Board Member North or a protective order, to permit NRA counsel to be present during examination of North and to lodge concise objections aimed at preserving privileges belonging to the NRA, its counsel and its Board counsel, including communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, and as trial preparation material. The NRA in no way wishes to interfere with the NYAG's investigation but has the right to object to disclosure of its privileged information. The NRA will be seeking interim relief pursuant to CPLR 5519 and CPLR 3103 to stay or suspend discovery pending the appeal so that the NRA's substantial rights are not violated.

Party Information

Instructions: Fill in the name of each party to the action or proceeding, one name per line. After oral argument, and for the reasons stated on the record of 8-19-2019, the court denies the application of the NRA to sit in on the investigatory deposition of Mr. North. As explained on the record, the balance of the equities does not favor the NRA. The Attorney General has reiterated time and again that they are not seeking privileged information and just now represented that If Mr. North starts to reveal privileged information, they are going to “cut him off.” Moreover, Mr. North has his own counsel who can protect the privilege, and is likely to protect the privilege given that otherwise Mr. North could be vulnerable to a claim for breach of fiduciary duty.

On the other side, the equities favor the AG. Having the NRA or its Board sit in on an investigatory deposition by law enforcement could have the serious consequence of compromising the integrity of that investigation, particularly given the seemingly acrimonious relationship between Mr. North and the NRA Board. For the purposes of this investigation, the NRA and its Board are one and the same. Their interests are united.

FOR THE FOLLOWING

In reaching this conclusion, the court notes that Mr. North and his counsel appear to be operating in good faith as they gave notice to the NRA of the subpoena; and filed at least some documents in redacted form in a case in the Commercial Division. Although some documents were filed in non-redacted form, the court notes that it has been at least a month and there has been no motion to seal from the NRA. Similarly, there was no effort made to have the court review in camera the document that is completely redacted and attached as an exhibit to the NRA's papers. Consequently, the court is unable to assess the depth, if any, to which the privilege would have been compromised.

It would also likely compromise the investigation were the transcript to be handed over to the NRA during the investigation. I am not sure of the harm once the investigation is over, but that issue is not ripe yet. The court will retain jurisdiction, should that issue ever arise.

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the court denies the application and dismisses the petition.
