cause to:

- (i) extend each of the deadlines in the current Scheduling Order (NYSCEF 463) by three months from the certified completion of the NRA's document production, including privilege logs. This extension is necessary to allow the Special Master O. Peter Sherwood, whose appointment is imminent in light of the parties' agreement, to address the OAG's request for an order compelling the NRA to complete its document production, including documents post-dating the filing of this action, and privilege logs, by February 2, 2022 or such other date set by the Special Master;
- (ii) compel the NRA to complete its review and/or production of the third party documents it demanded to review for privilege, and production of privilege logs, in particular arbitration documents it was previously ordered to review for production from Christopher Cox, documents in the possession of Defendant Joshua Powell that is was also directed by the Court to produce promptly, and communications with the NRA's outside auditor, Aronson LLP, along with accompanying privilege logs, by January 28, 2022 or such other date set by the Court or forego or waive any right to such review, although the parties' claw back provision would remain in effect for any privileged documents inadvertently produced; and
- (iii) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just, fair and appropriate;

 ORDERED that the deadlines for discovery set out in the pre-trial scheduling order (NYSCEF 463) are hereby extended pending determination of the application brought on by this order to show cause;

ORDERED that service of a copy of this Order and the papers upon which it is based upon
