NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS: ORDER AND NOTICE REASSIGNING CASE

Pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.734, the complex civil case referenced above is hereby transferred to Judge Jill H. Talley in Complex Case Management Department 25, effective January 31, 2022, for the limited purposes set forth herein.

This case is assigned for complex case management pursuant to California Rules of Court 3.750, et seq., and Local Rule 2.46(F). This case is also pre-assigned for trial in the Complex Case Management Department unless a trial date has been previously set in Department 47 for assignment, in which case, trial assignment shall remain as set in Department 47. The Complex Case Management Department shall hear any motions for consolidation, severance, bifurcation, intervention, and to continue trial unless a trial date has been previously set in Department 47 for assignment, in which case, such motions shall be heard in Department 47. This constitutes a limited purpose assignment pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.734. Law and motion proceedings shall be heard in the Civil Law and Motion Departments 53/54 pursuant to Local Rule 2.30, et seq., unless otherwise directed by the Complex Case Management Department.

Any hearings or trial dates previously set in Department 40 will be deemed set in Complex Case Management Department 25, at the same date and time previously scheduled, unless rescheduled by separate order. To the extent that Department 40 has ordered specified filings to be made via email, such filings shall be delivered to Dept25@saccourt.ca.gov.

As of January 1, 2022, Civil Procedure Code section 367.75 has become effective. Pursuant to section 367.75(a), any party intending to appear remotely must give notice to the Court and to all other parties. The Court encourages the parties to appear remotely for complex civil case matters and to provide such notice in accordance with section 367.75(a) in advance of the next hearing. Given that the application of Emergency Rule 3 to civil proceedings has been rescinded, previous orders setting remote hearings in this case are hereby modified to be consistent with section 367.75 to permit remote hearings when properly noticed and approved by the Court.
