APPEARANCES

Please take Notice, that the above-referenced case was previously designated as complex and assigned to Department 25 for complex case management and pre-assigned for trial. This case is now assigned to department 25 for all-purposes pursuant to California Rule of Court 3.734, such that law and motion matters, motions for consolidation, severance, bifurcation, intervention, to continue trial, as well as other motions referenced in Local Rule 1.05(B) shall be heard in the assigned all-purpose complex department.

Any and all motions currently set in Department 53 or 54 will be deemed set in the Complex Case Management Department, on the date and time previously scheduled. All future law and motion pleadings shall be set in the assigned all-purpose department.

The Court assumes that parties will not appear in person for hearings unless the Court orders in-person attendance. The Court strongly encourages all parties to appear remotely, subject to California Rule of Court 3.672.
