Christopher Reilly, from Petit, Kohn, Ingrassia, Lutz & Dolin PC, present for Defendant(s) remotely.

Plaintiffs Francisco Gudino Cardenas and Troy McFadyen's Application of C. Anne Malik to Appear as Counsel of Record Pro Hac Vice ROA 443

Hearing held. All participants appear remotely.

Tentative Ruling posted on the Internet as follows:

The Court is inclined to GRANT the unopposed application of C. Anne Malik for pro hac vice admission. However, the Van Zant declaration submitted in support of the application is missing Exhibits A and B, which are proof of payment to the State Bar and service upon the State Bar, respectively. Without such proof, the Court cannot grant the motion. Plaintiffs are to file a corrected declaration that includes the exhibits. Upon receipt, the Court will formally grant the application.

Counsel for moving party states that the documents requested in the Court's tentative ruling will be submitted forthwith. The Court will take the matter under submission upon receipt of the required documents.

The clerk will give notice once the Court issues its ruling.
