Civil Action No. 22-cv-1878 RDM

ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

(Proposed)

Before the Court is Plaintiffs' application to preliminarily enjoin enforcement of DC Code Section 7-2509.07(a)(6) and responsive pleadings thereto. The code section in question prohibits persons licensed by the District of Columbia to carry concealed handgun from carrying their handguns on public transportation vehicles or in public transportation stations,

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's decision in New York State Pistol & Rifle Association v. Bruen, 597 U.S. ___, Case No. 20-843, slip op. (June 23, 2022), the District bears the burden of justifying its regulation as consistent with the Second Amendment and the nation's historical tradition of firearms regulation.

The Court finds that the District has failed to show that its regulation is consistent with the nation's historic tradition of regulation of firearms. In light of that finding, the Court concludes that Plaintiffs' have established they are likely to succeed on the merits of their claim that DC Code Section 7-2509.07(a)(6) is void in violation of the Second Amendment.

Because the regulation burdens Plaintiffs Second Amendment right of armed self-defense, and is likely unconstitutional, the court finds that Plaintiffs have made a sufficient showing of irreparable injury. See Gordon v. Holder, 721 F.3d 638, 653 (D.C. Cir. 2013).

Likewise, because the regulation is likely unconstitutional, Plaintiffs' have shown that the equities are in its favor and that the public interest would be served by grant of a preliminary injunction. Id.

Accordingly, the Court will grant the requested injunction.

The Court further finds pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. Pro 65(c) that bond is not required to protect the interests of Defendants. So Plaintiffs need post no bond.

IT IS ORDERED that Defendants and all persons acting in concert with Defendants having notice of this Order are enjoined from enforcing DC Code Section 7-2509.07(a)(6) pending final resolution of this proceeding.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that no bond is required of the Plaintiffs.

SO ORDERED.
