DECLARATION OF CLIFFORD W. FLORES

I, Clifford W. Flores, declare as follows:

1. I am an adult resident of the County of Santa Clara, California, and I am a named plaintiff in this matter. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this declaration, and if called as a witness, could competently testify thereto.

2. This declaration is executed in support of plaintiffs' motion for the issuance of a temporary restraining order, and issuance of a preliminary injunction, made pursuant to FRCP 65, whereby we are seeking an injunction prohibiting the temporary/permanent enforcement of the prohibition on the possession of large-capacity magazines, set forth in Pen. Code § 32310, subdiv. (c) and (d) as enacted in 2016.

3. I am a lifelong resident of this state. I am a law-abiding individual, and I am not prohibited from owning firearms.

4. I am also a long-standing collector of firearms, some of which are rare and unique, and/or of significant historical value. In conjunction with this collection, I have acquired, since before 2000, a large-capacity magazine as that term is defined by the statute. This large-capacity magazine was originally manufactured for, and made a part of a Pistole Parabellum 1908 Luger pistol, chambered in 9mm Luger, which I own. I am informed and believe that this is a World War I-era pistol, manufactured in 1917 or before, and imported into the United States thereafter for legal sale and acquisition by collectors.

5. I am further informed and believe that the large-capacity magazine, which is an operating part of this pistol, has substantial historical and financial value, and is irreplaceable – especially in California, where I understand that the transfer of large-capacity magazines by ordinary citizens has been generally prohibited since 2000.

6. I am the trustee of a testamentary trust called the Flores Family Trust, established in approx. 2008, in which I have placed all of my personal property, with the intention of passing such property onto my son, Miguel Wong, who is a law-abiding adult, and who is not prohibited from owning or acquiring firearms. I would like to bequeath the firearm, complete with the

1 magazine to which it is a part, to my son, by and through the family trust, after I pass.

2 7. I do not wish to “part out” such a rare and unique pistol with substitute parts that
3 were not included or acquired along with the pistol, or that may diminish its utility and/or value.
4 I therefore believe this is a substantial burden on my rights as a gun and property owner.

5 8. I have therefore brought this action on my own behalf, and in a representative
6 capacity on behalf of the class of law-abiding California citizens who have lawfully possessed
7 large-capacity magazines (as that term is defined by statute), since before 2000. The “pre-ban”
8 magazine which I own is an inherent operating part of a firearm. That firearm containing the 9 “pre-ban” large capacity magazine is lawfully owned by me, as is my right, as guaranteed by the 10 U.S. Constitution.

11 9. I do not wish to remove or sell this pre-ban large-capacity magazine in my
12 possession, as it is literally irreplaceable, given the prohibition on the further purchase,
13 acquisition or manufacture of such items under California law. I am unwilling to destroy or 14 surrender this pre-ban large capacity magazine in my possession.

15 10. Therefore, I believe that this large-capacity magazine in my possession has 16 substantial value, as an irreplaceable item. Moreover, it would likely cost me substantial
17 amounts to replace the magazine with functional equivalents using magazines holding ten or 18 fewer rounds, which was not originally included with this pistol. In my view, this deprives me of 19 the beneficial use of the firearm as it was intended to be used, and undermines its utility.

20 11. Because of these facts and circumstances, as of July 1, unless the enforcement of 21 Pen. Code § 32310(c) is enjoined, I will suffer a permanent physical deprivation of personal 22 property, which happens to be an inherent, operating part of a firearm, the ownership of which is
23 protected by the Constitution. I will therefore and for the reasons stated here suffer irreparable
24 injury unless the law is enjoined.

25 12. As of July 1, 2017, if Penal Code § 32310(c) remains in effect and is enforced, I
26 will comply with the law, but in so doing, I will be deprived of all beneficial use of the property.
27 For these reasons stated in this declaration, I am respectfully asking the court to enjoin the 28

1 enforcement of the ban on the prohibition of these “pre-ban” large-capacity magazines set forth
2 in Pen. Code § 32310(c) and (d) as amended.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 4 June 8 2017.
