JAMES W. PORTER, II
President

December 1, 2013

Wayne LaPierre
National Rifle Association
11250 Waples Mill Road
Fairfax, VA 22030

Dear Wayne:

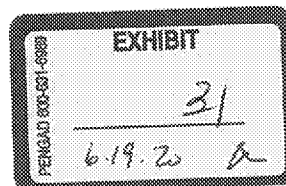

The National Rifle Association ("NRA" or Association) has determined that it is in the best interests of the Association to enter into a long term contractual relationship with you. Thus, it is with great delight that I am writing to extend to you an offer of employment with the National Rifle Association once your term as an officer has ended. It can be said that you are exactly the kind of intelligent and enthusiastic individual who will contribute significantly to the NRA over the next five years. The NRA recognizes your essential role in the leadership and continuing growth of this organization and takes this action to assure that your talents will remain available to the NRA and focused on our mission.

The terms of our offer are as follows:

- Compensation: Your annual salary will be set by the schedule below. You will be paid in equal semi-monthly installments, payable on the 15th and final day of each month. Compensation under this provision will commence upon the effective date of this agreement as defined below.
 - * 2014 - $1,000,000
 - * 2015 - $1,100,000
 - * 2016 - $1,100,000
 - * 2017 - $1,100,000
 - * 2018 - $1,100,000

The amounts set forth above are for 12 full months of service and will be prorated and paid on a semi-monthly basis for any portion of less than a full year during which your services are performed.

- Job Description: You will be an employee. Your responsibilities will include fundraising for and promoting the NRA generally. You may promote or solicit funds for other Second Amendment organizations with express approval of the Executive Vice President or officers of the Board. Solely during the term of this agreement, and upon your approval, the NRA may use your image and name for fund raising purposes. However, nothing in this employment agreement shall be construed to bar you from protecting your right to the exclusive use of your name or image against infringement by any party or parties, including the NRA's agents, employees and assigns. You will report to the Executive Vice President and shall attend the annual meeting and board meetings only at the request of the Executive Vice President or officers of the Board. Your job will require a full-time commitment roughly equivalent to your current activities as a corporate officer.
- Retirement Plans: As an employee, you will be eligible to participate in the NRA's executive retention plan and qualified retirement plans including the pension plan, 401k plan, and profit sharing plan.
- Health and Disability Insurance: You will be covered by the NRA's group medical, long term disability, and life insurance policies, and by other benefit programs on the same basis as regular employees of the firm.
- Vacation and Sick Leave: You will not be subject to specific limits on vacation time and sick leave.
- Start Date and Term of this Agreement: We are eager for you to join the NRA as an employee when your term as Executive Vice President ends. The term of this agreement and your performance under the terms set forth will commence immediately upon cessation of your term of office as Executive Vice President. While serving in the office of Executive Vice President, your employment relationship is set by annual Board review. The term of this agreement will end at 12:00 midnight on December 31, 2018.
- Lobbying Registration: While the parties understand that the services provided to the NRA by you do not necessarily include lobbying as that term is defined under federal law, should you provide such lobbying services at the request of the NRA, you agree to comply with the requirements of federal law including, but not limited to, registration and reporting.
- Confidentiality: You agree to maintain the same level of confidentiality concerning the NRA and information concerning the organization that currently applies to your position as an officer. The NRA agrees to maintain all information regarding LaPierre, inclusive of the terms and conditions of this agreement, confidential.

- Disputes: You and the NRA agree to make a good faith effort to mediate any disputes which arise under this agreement. Any dispute which cannot be resolved through such mediation will be resolved by arbitration utilizing the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association.
- Notices: All notices and other communications required or permitted by this Agreement to be delivered shall be delivered in writing to the address shown below, either personally, by facsimile transmission or by registered, certified or express mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the address for such party specified below or to such other address as the party may from time to time advise the other party, and shall be deemed given and received as actual personal delivery, on the first business day after the date of delivery shown on any such facsimile transmission or upon the date or actual receipt shown on any return receipt if registered, certified or express mail is used, as the case may be.
- Applicable Law: The law of the Commonwealth of Virginia shall apply to all disputes arising out of or related to this agreement.
- Entire Agreement; Amendments and Termination: This agreement may not be amended or terminated except by a writing executed by all of the parties hereto. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of NRA and Wayne LaPierre relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior oral and written understandings and agreements relating to such subject matter.
- Successors and Assigns: The rights and obligations of the parties hereunder are not assignable to another person without prior written consent.
- Severability; Provisions Subject to Applicable Law: All provisions of this Agreement shall be applicable only to the extent that they do not violate any applicable law, and are intended to be limited to the extent necessary so that they will not render this Agreement invalid, illegal or unenforceable under any applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement or any application thereof shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity legality and enforceability of other provisions of this Agreement or of any other application of such provision shall in no way be affected thereby.
- Waiver of Rights: No waiver by the NRA or Wayne LaPierre of a right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other right or remedy or of any subsequent right or remedy of the same kind.

- Counterparts: This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but both of which taken together shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

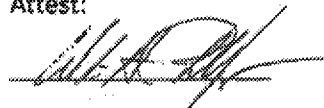

I would certainly be happy to discuss any aspect of this letter with you. If this offer meets your approval, please sign the enclosed copy of the letter. Execution of this agreement by you shall constitute a binding agreement between the NRA and yourself. The NRA Board and I look forward to a long and rewarding professional relationship with you.

Sincerely,

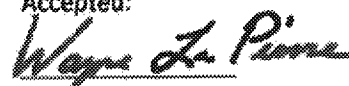

James Porter

RE: Contract Extension

If acceptable to you, the National Rifle Association (NRA) would like to extend your contract that we entered into on December 1, 2013. We would propose to amend that letter agreement by adding two (2) years to the Compensation paragraph. All other terms would remain the same.

Currently, the agreement ends in 2018 at a rate of $1,100,000. This rate is applicable when your term as an Officer has ended. It is also meant as to serve as guidance to the Compensation Committee if you are still serving as an Officer.

We would propose the following additional schedule:

- 2019 - $1,150,000
- 2020 - $1,200,000

As noted in the 2013 agreement, we continue to believe it is in the best interests of the NRA to enter into a long term contractual relationship with you. If this extension is acceptable please sign below.

Re: Contract Extension

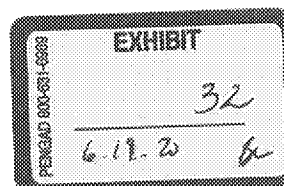

If acceptable to you, the National Rifle Association (NRA) would like to extend and modify your contract that we entered into on December 1, 2013. This extension also supersedes the agreement entered into on November 2, 2016 that addressed your compensation through 2023.

Currently, your employment contract ends in 2023. These rates are applicable when your term as an Officer has ended. The rates are also meant to serve as guidance to the Officer's Compensation Committee if you are still serving as an officer. We note that security concerns also prompt this contract modification. Additional expenditures relating to safe lodging, secure transportation and event security are not compensation to you and will be paid separately as required by identified security threats.

We would propose the following revised 7-year schedule:

2019 $1,300,000 (1 year)
2020-2025 $1,500,000 (6 years)

As noted in the 2013 agreement, we continue to believe it is in the best interest of the NRA that we maintain control over your name and likeness. For that reason we seek to contract with you for an additional five years (2026-2030) as a consultant. During this five year period, the NRA will have use of your name and likeness as mutually agreed upon. You agree to make personal appearances that are reasonable in terms of advance notice and convenience of the location. Acceptable use will also include written and video fundraising appeals, membership drives, and membership retention programs. The annual rate will be:

$1,500,000 for three years, 2026-2028

$1,300,000 for two years, 2029-30

If this extension and modification is acceptable, please sign below:
