Request for Judicial Notice in Support of Motion for Preliminary Injunction

22
23 REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

24 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(c)(2), Plaintiffs The Sportsmen’s
25 Alliance Foundation, Safari Club International, and The Congressional Sportsmen’s
26 Foundation (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), through their counsel, respectfully request
27 that this Court take judicial notice of the following sources as set forth in the 28 following supporting memorandum.

I.

INTRODUCTION

Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b) provides that a judicially noticed fact must be one “not subject to reasonable dispute” because it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court; or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot be readily questioned. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). Rule 201(c)(2) further provides that the Court “must take judicial notice if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Judicial notice is appropriate “at any stage of the proceeding.” Id. 201(d). In accordance with Rule 201(b), Plaintiffs seek judicial notice of public documents that are relevant to Plaintiffs’ Motion for Preliminary Injunction.

II.

ARGUMENT

The following sources are all appropriate for judicial notice because they “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Id. 201(b).

A. The Court May Take Judicial Notice of Public Records

A court may take judicial notice of public records. See Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 689 (9th Cir. 2001); see also, e.g., Corrie v. Caterpillar, Inc., 503 F.3d 974, 978 n.2 (9th Cir. 2007) (explaining that a court may take judicial notice of a government publication); Santa Monica Food Not Bombs v. City of Santa Monica, 450 F.3d 1022, 1025 n.2 (9th Cir. 2006) (taking judicial notice of public records that “can be accessed at Santa Monica’s official website”); Lee v. City of L.A., 250 F.3d 668, 689 (9th Cir. 2001) (providing that judicial notice may be taken of public records); Pickett v. Sheridan Health Care Ctr., 664 F.3d 632, 648 (7th Cir. 2011) (“We have recognized the authority of a court to take judicial notice of government websites”).

1 Further, “[l]egislative history is properly a subject of judicial notice.” See
2 Anderson v. Holder, 673 F. 3d 1089, 1094, n. 1 (9th Cir. 2012) (taking notice of
3 excerpts from a Senate Report); see also Jarvis v. State Land Dep’t, 104 Ariz. 527,
4 530 (1969) (finding that a court could take judicial notice of records of a state
5 agency); Morning Star Packing Co. v. S.K. Foods, L.P., 2015 WL 3797774, at *2
6 (E.D. Cal. June 18, 2015) (judicial notice may be taken of “official records of the 7 legislative branch”).

8 All the following documents are public records and are readily available on 9 governmental websites. Further, they constitute the official legislative history of the 10 adoption of the statutes challenged in this litigation.

11 1. Exhibit 1 to the declaration is a true and correct copy of Assembly Bill
12 2571 (“AB 2571”). That exhibit is relevant to the claims in this case because it shows
13 the text and legislative findings of California’s enactment of section 22949.80 of the 14 California Business and Professions Code, which is the subject of this litigation.

15 2. Exhibit 2 to the declaration is a true and correct copy of Assembly Bill
16 160 (“AB 160”). That exhibit is relevant to the claims in this case because it shows
17 the text and legislative findings of California’s amendment of section 22949.80 of the 18 California Business and Professions Code, which is the subject of this litigation.

19 3. Exhibit 3 to the declaration is a true and correct copy of the California
20 Senate Judiciary Committee Analysis of AB 2571. That exhibit is relevant to the 21 claims in this case because it shows the legislature’s justification for enacting Section
22 22949.80 of the California Business and Professions Code.

25 CONCLUSION

26 The information submitted for judicial notice can all be “accurately and readily 27 determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R.

1 Evid. 201(b). Accordingly, this Court should grant the motion and take judicial notice
2 of the public documents specified in this motion.

Assembly Bill No. 2571

CHAPTER 77

An act to add Chapter 39 (commencing with Section 22949.80) to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to firearms, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor June 30, 2022. Filed with Secretary of State June 30, 2022.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2571, Bauer-Kahan. Firearms: advertising to minors.

Existing law generally regulates manufacturers and dealers of firearms. Under existing law, commercial speech or advertising is generally protected under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Existing laws and regulations, however, restrict the content and placement of advertising and promotional marketing of alcohol, cannabis, and tobacco to protect minors.

This bill would prohibit a firearm industry member, as defined, from advertising or marketing any firearm-related product, as defined, in a manner that is designed, intended, or reasonably appears to be attractive to minors. The bill would also prohibit a firearm industry member from using, disclosing, or compiling a minor's personal information if it is intended to market or advertise a firearm to that minor, as specified. The bill would impose a civil penalty of up to $25,000 for each violation of these provisions, and would authorize a person harmed by a violation to bring suit to recover any damages suffered, as specified. The bill would make each copy or republication of marketing or advertising prohibited by these provisions a separate violation. The bill would declare that its provisions are severable, as specified.

This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the proliferation of firearms to and among minors poses a threat to the health, safety, and security of all residents of, and visitors to, this state. These weapons are especially dangerous in the hands of minors because current research and scientific evidence shows that minors are more impulsive, more likely to engage in risky and reckless behavior, unduly influenced by peer pressure, motivated more by rewards than costs or negative consequences, less likely to consider the future consequences of their actions and decisions, and less able to control themselves in emotionally arousing situations. In recognition of these facts, the Legislature has already prohibited minors from possessing firearms, except in certain limited circumstances. Nonetheless, firearms manufacturers and retailers continue to market firearms to minors, often identifying particular weapons as starter guns, especially good for children. As reflected in numerous laws regulating marketing of dangerous products to minors, children are especially susceptible to marketing appeals, as well as more prone to impulsive, risky, thrill-seeking, and violent behavior than other age groups. Firearms marketing contributes to the unlawful sale of firearms to minors, as well as the unlawful transfer of firearms to minors by adults who may possess those weapons lawfully. This state has a compelling interest in ensuring that minors do not possess these dangerous weapons and in protecting its citizens, especially minors, from gun violence and from intimidation by persons brandishing these weapons.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to further restrict the marketing and advertising of firearms to minors. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit in any way the enforceability of existing law concerning firearms and marketing thereof.

SEC. 2. Chapter 39 (commencing with Section 22949.80) is added to Division 8 of the Business and Professions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 39. MARKETING FIREARMS TO MINORS

22949.80. (a) (1) A firearm industry member shall not advertise, market, or arrange for placement of an advertising or marketing communication concerning any firearm-related product in a manner that is designed, intended, or reasonably appears to be attractive to minors.

(2) In determining whether marketing or advertising of a firearm-related product is attractive to minors, as described in paragraph (1), a court shall consider the totality of the circumstances, including, but not limited to, whether the marketing or advertising:

(A) Uses caricatures that reasonably appear to be minors or cartoon characters to promote firearm-related products.

(B) Offers brand name merchandise for minors, including, but not limited to, hats, t-shirts, or other clothing, or toys, games, or stuffed animals, that promotes a firearm industry member or firearm-related product.

(C) Offers firearm-related products in sizes, colors, or designs that are specifically designed to be used by, or appeal to, minors.

(D) Is part of a marketing or advertising campaign designed with the intent to appeal to minors.

(E) Uses images or depictions of minors in advertising and marketing materials to depict the use of firearm-related products.

(F) Is placed in a publication created for the purpose of reaching an audience that is predominately composed of minors and not intended for a more general audience composed of adults.

(b) A firearm industry member publishing material directed to minors in this state or who has actual knowledge that a minor in this state is using or receiving its material, shall not knowingly use, disclose, compile, or allow a third party to use, disclose, or compile, the personal information of that minor with actual knowledge that the use, disclosure, or compilation is for the purpose of marketing or advertising to that minor any firearm-related product.

(c) As used in this chapter:

(1) “Ammunition” has the same meaning as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 16150 of the Penal Code.

(2) “Firearm” has the same meaning as provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 16520 of the Penal Code.

(3) “Firearm accessory” means an attachment or device designed or adapted to be inserted into, affixed onto, or used in conjunction with, a firearm which is designed, intended, or functions to alter or enhance the firing capabilities of a firearm, the lethality of the firearm, or a shooter’s ability to hold, carry, or use a firearm.

(4) “Firearm industry member” means any of the following:

(A) A person, firm, corporation, company, partnership, society, joint stock company, or any other entity or association engaged in the manufacture, distribution, importation, marketing, wholesale, or retail sale of firearm-related products.

(B) A person, firm, corporation, company, partnership, society, joint stock company, or any other entity or association formed for the express purpose of promoting, encouraging, or advocating for the purchase, use, or ownership of firearm-related products that does one of the following:

(i) Advertises firearm-related products.

(ii) Advertises events where firearm-related products are sold or used.

(iii) Endorses specific firearm-related products.

(iv) Sponsors or otherwise promotes events at which firearm-related products are sold or used.

(5) “Firearm-related product” means a firearm, ammunition, reloaded ammunition, a firearm precursor part, a firearm component, or a firearm accessory that meets any of the following conditions:

(A) The item is sold, made, or distributed in California.

(B) The item is intended to be sold or distributed in California.

(C) It is reasonably foreseeable that the item would be sold or possessed in California.

(D) Marketing or advertising for the item is directed to residents of California.

(6) “Marketing or advertising” means, in exchange for monetary compensation, to make a communication to one or more individuals, or to arrange for the dissemination to the public of a communication, about a product or service the primary purpose of which is to encourage recipients of the communication to purchase or use the product or service.

(7) “Minor” means a natural person under 18 years of age who resides in this state.

(d) This section shall not be construed to require or authorize a firearm industry member to collect or retain age information about users or subscribers of products or services offered.

(e) (1) Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each violation, which shall be assessed and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the people of the State of California by the Attorney General or by any district attorney, county counsel, or city attorney in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The court shall impose a civil penalty under paragraph (1) for each violation of this chapter. In assessing the amount of the civil penalty, the court shall consider any one or more of the relevant circumstances presented by any of the parties to the case, including, but not limited to, the nature and seriousness of the misconduct, the number of violations, the persistence of the misconduct, the length of time over which the misconduct occurred, the willfulness of the defendant's misconduct, and the defendant's assets, liabilities, and net worth.

(3) A person harmed by a violation of this section may commence a civil action to recover their actual damages.

(4) The court shall also order injunctive relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or persons responsible for the conduct, as the court deems necessary to prevent the harm described in this section.

(5) Upon a motion, a court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including expert witness fees and other litigation expenses, to a plaintiff who is a prevailing party in an action brought pursuant to this section.

(6) Each copy or republication of marketing or advertising prohibited by this section shall be deemed a separate violation.

(f) The provisions of this section are severable. If any portion, subdivision, paragraph, clause, sentence, phrase, word, or application of this section is for any reason held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, that decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have adopted this section and each and every portion, subdivision, paragraph, clause, sentence, phrase, word, and application not declared invalid or unconstitutional without regard to whether any other portion of this section or application thereof would be subsequently declared invalid.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect public safety by prohibiting firearm advertising to minors as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 2022. Filed with Secretary of State September 29, 2022.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 160, Committee on Budget. Public safety trailer bill.

(1) Existing law prohibits a firearm industry member, as defined, from engaging in advertising or marketing related to firearms that is intended for minors or reasonably appears to be attractive to minors, as specified.

This bill would exempt from this prohibition any advertising that is offering or promoting classes or events related to firearm safety, hunting, or sport shooting, as specified, or promoting membership in any organization.

(2) Existing law generally provides for the compensation of victims and derivative victims of specified types of crimes by the California Victim Compensation Board from the Restitution Fund, which is continuously appropriated to the board. Existing law prohibits the board from granting compensation to a person who is convicted of a violent felony, as prescribed, until that person has been discharged from probation or has been released from a correctional institution and has been discharged from parole, or has been discharged from postrelease community supervision or mandatory supervision, if any, for that violent crime.

This bill would instead prohibit compensation from being granted to a person in the above circumstances until after that person has been released from a correctional institution.

(3) Existing law authorizes the board to compensate for pecuniary loss, including compensation equal to the loss of income or loss of support, or both, that a victim or derivative victim incurs as a direct result of the victim's or derivative victim's injury or the victim's death, as specified. Existing law also provides limits on the compensation a victim and derivative victim may receive.

This bill would authorize the board, in authorizing compensation for loss of income and support, to base the loss of income on the actual loss the victim sustains or the wages that an employee would earn, as specified, during the period that the victim is unable to work or seek work as a result of the injury for adult victims, and upon the loss the victim actually sustains for victims who are under 18 years of age at the time of the crime, as specified. The bill would also specify that an adult derivative victim and a derivative victim who was legally dependent on the victim at the time of the crime are also similarly eligible for compensation for loss of income, as specified. The bill would specify that if a victim is a minor at the time of the crime, the victim is eligible for future loss of income, calculated as specified.

This bill would specify that if an adult victim or derivative victim was not employed or receiving earned income benefits at the time of the crime, the victim or derivative victim, as applicable, shall be eligible for loss of income if they were fully or partially employed or receiving income benefits for a total of at least 2 weeks in the 12 months preceding the qualifying crime, or had an offer of employment at the time of the crime and was unable to begin employment as a result of the crime, as specified. The bill would specify that if a derivative victim who is otherwise eligible for loss of support is eligible for loss of support if the deceased victim was not employed or receiving earned income benefits at the time of the crime, but the deceased victim was fully or partially employed or receiving earned income benefits for a total of at least 2 weeks in the 12 months preceding the qualifying crime, if the victim had an offer of employment at the time of the crime and was unable to begin employment as a result of the crime.

This bill would require the board, by July 1, 2025, to adopt new guidelines to rely on a range of evidence in considering and approving claims for loss of income, as specified.

The bill would also remove or raise various limits on the compensation a victim and derivative victim may receive, as specified. By expanding the eligibility for, and by increasing or removing limits on, compensation from a continuously appropriated fund, this bill would make an appropriation.

(4) Existing law requires the board to publicize the existence of the victim compensation program, and requires a local law enforcement agency to inform crime victims of these provisions, as specified.

This bill would require the board to provide every general acute care hospital in the state that operates an emergency department with specified information, and require the hospital to display the information, as specified. The bill would also require every local law enforcement agency to inform crime victims of the existence of specified trauma recovery centers. By requiring local law enforcement agencies to provide additional information to crime victims, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(5) Existing law, as added by Proposition 9, the Victims' Bill of Rights Act of 2008: Marsy's Law, at the November 4, 2008, statewide general election, requires a law enforcement agency investigating a criminal act and an agency prosecuting a criminal act to, at the time of initial contact with a crime victim, during followup investigation, or as soon thereafter as deemed appropriate, provide or make available to the victim a "Marsy Rights" card that contains the constitutional rights of crime victims without charge or cost to the victim.

This bill would require every law enforcement agency investigating a criminal act and every agency prosecuting a criminal act to, at the time of initial contact with a crime victim, during followup investigation, or as soon thereafter as deemed appropriate by investigating officers or prosecuting attorneys, provide or make available to each victim of the criminal act without charge or cost a "Victim Protections and Resources" card and to provide other information, as specified. The bill would also require the Attorney General to design and make available in PDF or other imaging format to these agencies a "Victim Protections and Resources" card containing specified information. The bill would authorize the "Victim Protections and Resources" card to be designed as part of and included with the "Marsy Rights" card described above. By requiring these agencies to provide additional information to crime victims, this bill would impose a state-mandated local program.

(6) Existing law allows a person who was erroneously convicted of a felony and imprisoned in the state prison or a county jail to present a claim to the board for the injury sustained by the person through the erroneous conviction and imprisonment or incarceration. Existing law requires the board to provide a recommendation to the Legislature that an appropriation be made for the purpose of indemnifying the claimant for the erroneous conviction injury. Existing law requires that the amount of the appropriation recommended by the board be equivalent to $140 per day of incarceration served, as specified.

This bill would require that the compensation recommendation for a claimant be equivalent to $70 per day served on parole or supervised release, as specified. The bill would require that these amounts be updated annually to account for changes in the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Price Index, West Region.

(7) Existing law creates the Division of Juvenile Justice within the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation to operate facilities to house specified juvenile offenders. Existing law requires the Division of Juvenile Justice to close on June 30, 2023, and provides for the transition of youth who are currently housed within a Division of Juvenile Justice facility to the care and custody of counties.

Existing law requires a person convicted of specified sex offenses, including a person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation after having been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court because of the commission of a sex offense, to register with local law enforcement agencies while residing in the state or while attending school or working in the state. Existing law requires a person convicted of arson, or a person who is discharged or paroled from the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, Division of Juvenile Justice after being adjudicated a ward for having committed arson, to register with certain local officials in the area in which they reside.

This bill would define a discharged person for purposes of these sex offender and arson registration requirements to include specified persons who transition out of the division due to its statutorily required closure. The bill would require the court of jurisdiction to establish the point at which the ward is required to register and notify the Department of Justice of its decision.

(8) Existing law allows a defendant who successfully participated in the California Conservation Camp program as an incarcerated individual hand crew member, or successfully participated as a member of a county incarcerated individual hand crew, except as specified, to petition the court to have the pleading dismissed, as described, thus releasing the person of any penalties and disabilities of conviction, except as otherwise provided.

This bill would also grant this relief to a defendant who has successfully participated at an institutional firehouse, as specified.

(9) Existing law prescribes the distribution of funds collected from specified fines, forfeitures, and civil assessments imposed for crimes.

This bill would correct erroneous cross-references in existing law.

(10) Existing law, within the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, creates the Division of Juvenile Justice, headed by a director, to operate facilities to house specified juvenile offenders. Existing law requires the division to close on June 30, 2023, and provides for the transition of youth who are currently housed within a Division of Juvenile Justice facility to the care and custody of counties. Existing law requires the State Department of State Hospitals, upon closure of the division, to continue to provide evaluation, care, and treatment of state hospital patients referred to the division.

This bill would correct an erroneous cross-reference in existing law.

(11) This bill provides that certain of its provisions shall become operative on July 1, 2024, only if General Fund moneys over the multiyear forecasts beginning in the 2024–25 fiscal year are available to support ongoing augmentations and actions, and if an appropriation is made to backfill the Restitution Fund to support the actions.

(12) This bill would incorporate additional changes to Sections 13956 and 13957 of the Government Code proposed by SB 299 and SB 877, respectively, and Sections 4900 and 4904 of the Penal Code proposed by SB 1468, to be operative only if this bill and the other specified bills are enacted and this bill is enacted last.

(13) The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement. This bill would provide that, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that the bill contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement for those costs shall be made pursuant to the statutory provisions noted above.

(14) This bill would declare that it is to take effect immediately as a bill providing for appropriations related to the Budget Bill.

Firearms: advertising to minors

DIGEST

This bill prohibits firearm industry members from advertising or marketing, as defined, firearm-related products to minors. The bill restricts the use of minors' personal information in connection with marketing or advertising firearm-related products to those minors.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

In the United States, children are more likely to die from gun violence than in any other high-income country. In 2020, gun violence overtook car accidents to become the number one cause of death for U.S. children and adolescents.¹ In California, children are generally restricted from purchasing and possessing firearms and ammunition, except under specified circumstances. However, concerns have arisen that children are still being marketed to by the gun industry.

This bill prohibits firearm industry members from advertising or marketing, as defined, firearm-related products in a manner that is designed, intended, or reasonably appears to be attractive to minors. The determination of whether it is "attractive to minors" is based on a consideration of the totality of the circumstances, including whether the marketing or advertising used cartoon characters or offered brand name stuffed animals promoting the entity or firearm-related product. The bill also prohibits knowingly leveraging the personal information of a minor for the purpose of marketing or advertising to that minor any firearm-related product, as specified.

This bill is sponsored by Governor Gavin Newsom. It is supported by a variety of groups, including Everytown for Gun Safety and the County of San Diego. The bill is opposed by the National Rifle Association.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE LAW

Existing federal law:

- 1) Provides, pursuant to the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution, that a well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed. (U.S. Const. Amend. 2.)
- 2) Prohibits a qualified civil liability action from being brought in any Federal or State court. (15 U.S.C. § 7902.) A “qualified civil liability action” means a civil action or proceeding or an administrative proceeding brought by any person against a manufacturer or seller of a qualified product, or a trade association, for damages, punitive damages, injunctive or declaratory relief, abatement, restitution, fines or penalties, or other relief resulting from the criminal or unlawful misuse of a qualified product by the person or a third party. (15 U.S.C. § 7903.)
- 3) Establishes the federal Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) to provide protections and regulations regarding the collection of personal information from children under the age of 13. (15 U.S.C. § 6501 et seq.)

Existing state law:

- 1) Requires a person be at least 18 years of age to be sold most firearms and at least 21 years of age to be sold a handgun, except as specified. (Pen. Code §§ 27505, 27510.)
- 2) Establishes the Privacy Rights for California Minors in the Digital World (PRCMDW), which prohibits an operator of an internet website, online service, online application, or mobile application (“operator”) from the following:
 - a) marketing or advertising specified products or services, such as firearms, cigarettes, and alcoholic beverages, on its internet website, online service, online application, or mobile application that is directed to minors;
 - b) marketing or advertising such products or services to minors who the operator has actual knowledge are using its site, service, or application online and is a minor, if the marketing or advertising is specifically directed to that minor based upon the personal information of the minor;and

- c) knowingly using, disclosing, compiling, or allowing a third party to use, disclose, or compile, the personal information of a minor with actual knowledge that the use, disclosure, or compilation is for the purpose of marketing or advertising such products or services to that minor, where the website, service, or application is directed to minors or there is actual knowledge that a minor is using the website, service, or application. (Bus. & Prof. Code § 22580.)
- 3) Requires, pursuant to the PRCMDW, certain operators to permit a minor user to remove the minor's content or information and to further inform the minor of this right and the process for exercising it. (Bus. & Prof. Code § 22581.)
- 4) Requires, pursuant to the Parent's Accountability and Child Protection Act, a person or business that conducts business in California, and that seeks to sell any product or service in or into California that is illegal under state law to sell to a minor to, notwithstanding any general term or condition, take reasonable steps, as specified, to ensure that the purchaser is of legal age at the time of purchase or delivery, including, but not limited to, verifying the age of the purchaser. (Civ. Code § 1798.99.1(a)(1).)
- 5) Prohibits a business from selling or sharing the personal information of a consumer if the business has actual knowledge that the consumer is less than 16 years of age unless the consumer, in the case of consumers between 13 and 16 years of age, or the consumer's parent or guardian, in the case of consumers who are less than 13 years of age, has affirmatively authorized such sale or sharing. A business that willfully disregards the consumer's age shall be deemed to have had actual knowledge of the consumer's age. (Civ. Code § 1798.120.)
- 6) Defines "firearm" as a device designed to be used as a weapon from which is expelled through a barrel, a projectile by the force of an explosion or other form of combustion. (Pen. Code § 16520.) It defines "firearm precursor part" to mean a component of a firearm that is necessary to build or assemble a firearm and is either an unfinished receiver or an unfinished handgun frame. (Pen. Code § 16531.)
- 7) Defines "ammunition" to include any bullet, cartridge, magazine, clip, speed loader, autoloader, ammunition feeding device, or projectile capable of being fired from a firearm with a deadly consequence. (Pen. Code § 16150(b).)
- 8) Requires firearms dealers to obtain certain identifying information from firearms purchasers and forward that information, via electronic transfer, to the DOJ to perform a background check on the purchaser to determine whether they are prohibited from possessing a firearm. (Pen. Code §§ 28160-28220.)

COMMENTS

1. Children and the epidemic of gun violence in the United States

Gun violence in the United States has surged in recent years. While most shooting deaths involve handguns, there has been a dramatic rise in the use of assault weapons in gun massacres with six or more deaths, owing to their ability to inflict greater damage at a quicker rate.² Research shows that laws restricting assault weapons reduce deaths; estimates find mass-shooting fatalities were 70 percent less likely during the period when the federal ban was in effect.³ Another rising scourge is the prevalence of "ghost guns." In 2020, California accounted for 65 percent of all ghost guns seized by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.⁴ The weapons have been linked to 24 killings and dozens of other crimes in 2020 in Los Angeles alone. The problem of gun violence in our society is not going away. In 2020, over 45,000 Americans died from gun-related injuries in the United States. This is the most on record by far, a 43 percent increase from a decade prior.

As stated, gun violence has now become a leading cause of death of children in this country. This is a problem that is increasingly involving children from an early age:

On May 24th an 18-year-old gunman, Salvador Ramos, walked into an elementary school in Uvalde, a town in south-west Texas, and shot dead at least 21 people, including 19 children. Mr Ramos was himself killed, reportedly by police. His motive remains unclear. It is the latest in a spate of mass shootings in America, and the toll is the biggest at a school since a gunman killed 26 people at Sandy Hook Elementary in Newtown, Connecticut, in 2012.

In the decade since Sandy Hook there have been over 900 shootings on school grounds in America. After more than 60 years in which motor-vehicle crashes were the leading cause of death for young people, since 2017 guns have killed more Americans between the ages of one and 24. In 2020 more than 10,000 young Americans were killed by firearms, up from just under 7,000 two decades earlier. Pupils at almost all schools take part in active-shooter drills, learning to hide beneath their desks. Some drills use pellet guns and fake blood to simulate an attack.⁵

Not only are children increasingly the victims, but also the perpetrators of school shootings:

In cases where the source of the gun could be determined, more than 85 percent of shooters brought them from their own homes or obtained them from friends or relatives, according to The Post's analysis.

The ranks of school shooters include a 6-year-old boy, who killed a classmate after saying he didn't like her, and a 15-year-old girl, who did the same to a friend for rejecting her romantic overtures.

Seven in 10 of them, however, were under the age of 18, which means that – often because of an adult’s negligence – dozens of children had access to deadly weapons.

The median age of school shooters is 16.⁶

This is borne out in other studies as well. According to an analysis of FBI data, in 29 of 62 active shooting incidents at educational facilities in the United States between 2000 and 2019, the offender was younger than 18, with an additional 10 shooters between 18 and 21 years old.⁷ Another federally-run center database shows “at least 59 percent of the 2,275 school shootings researchers recorded since 1970 were committed by someone under 21 years old. The offender’s age is unknown in another 18 percent of incidents.”⁸

2. Targeting children with firearm-related products

This bill is prompted by the incidence of marketing and advertising of firearm-related products to children, arguably seeking to attract future legal gun owners. A report from the Violence Policy Center (VPC) outlines the problem:

The gun industry has long understood that it faces a slow-motion demographic collapse. With the industry’s customer base growing older, household gun ownership in America has steadily declined. As its primary market of white males ages and dies off, the firearms industry has set its sights on America’s children. Much like the tobacco industry’s search for replacement smokers, the gun industry is seeking replacement shooters to purchase its deadly products. Firearms companies have teamed up with “corporate partners” like the National Rifle Association of America, the gun industry’s trade association the National Shooting Sports Foundation (NSSF), and online publications such as Junior Shooters in an industry-wide effort to market firearms to kids. They do this by promoting websites and magazines targeted at children, designing “kid-friendly” guns to appeal to the youth market, and even working to create the equivalent of “reality” video” games to encourage gun use from an early age.

The industry's focus on recruiting children into the gun culture has been acknowledged since at least the 1990s.⁹

One particularly acute example is a product marketed by WEE1 Tactical:

A US gun manufacturer has unveiled a semi-automatic rifle for kids modeled on the AR-15, which has been used in a number of deadly mass shootings, sparking condemnation from gun safety groups.

The gun dubbed the JR-15 is being marketed by maker WEE1 Tactical as "the first in a line of shooting platforms that will safely help adults introduce children to the shooting sports."

The company's website says the rifle "also looks, feels, and operates just like Mom and Dad's gun."

The JR-15 is only 31 inches (80 centimeters) long, weighs less than 2.5 pounds (one kilogram) and comes with magazines of five or 10 rounds of 22 caliber bullets. It was released in mid-January with a price tag of $389.

The adult model, the AR-15, is the civilian version of a military-style weapon and has been used in multiple mass killings in the United States, including in schools.¹⁰

The marketing generally includes more compact models that are lighter to handle or firearms in various colors. A New York Times blog synthesizes the VPC report:

The gun industry markets a variety of products explicitly to children, a new report shows, from armed stuffed animals to lighter versions of rifles. And some see kids as a vital group of future gun buyers who need to be brought into the fold at a young age.

The report, called "Start Them Young" and issued on Thursday by the Violence Policy Center, lists a variety of firearms meant at least partly for children. It mentions the Crickett rifle, a gun made for children by the company Keystone Sporting Arms. Keystone's website and some of its merchandise bear the image of "Davey Crickett," a gun-wielding cartoon insect. The company sells Davey Crickett hats, dog tags and pins, as well as a Davey Crickett Beanie Baby, listed as "not for children under three years of age."

Keystone's website also sells books featuring "Little Jake," a boy who uses his gun to bring down a bear and save an African village from a marauding elephant. The publisher of the books says Little Jake is actually older than he looks: "Little Jake is a fictional character in his late teens. While small in stature so that young children may relate to him, Little Jake is old enough to hunt and fish safely on his own without adult supervision."

"Start Them Young" also cites the rise of .22-caliber versions of higher-caliber rifles, often produced with lightweight materials. According to an article in the trade magazine Shooting Sports Retailer, "these guns bring the coolness and fun of the tactical rifle to kids and less serious shooters."¹¹

According to the author:

In 2021 there were approximately 259 unintentional shootings by children, resulting in 104 deaths and 168 injuries. Weapons used by children have put other children at risk. 91% of the victims in these shootings by children were also under 18, often siblings of the children shooting. In California, gun violence is the third-leading cause of death for children and teens. This epidemic of deadly violence is fueled by an industry that encourages children to hold a gun as soon as they can walk.

Gun manufacturers view children as their next generation of advocates and customers, and target them with slick advertising – even children's books. The advertising for these weapons is shameless. Children in California are not allowed to buy or own a gun, yet they are advertised to across all forms of media with cartoons, video games, and social media.

AB 2571 will prohibit a person or entity from publishing materials that advertise or market firearms or weapons to anyone under the age of 18. This bill would allow the Attorney General, a District or County Attorney, or a County Counsel to bring a civil action against each violation up to $25,000.

Guns are not a toy. Guns are a tool of death. Taking away this tool of violent indoctrination from the gun industry is a vital step forward to protect California's children.

3. Prohibiting the marketing or advertising of such products to children

This bill prohibits a firearm industry member from advertising or marketing any firearm-related product in a manner that is designed, intended, or reasonably appears to be attractive to minors. Furthermore, the bill places limitations on how these entities can utilize the personal information of minors in this context. If they are publishing material directed to minors in California or have actual knowledge that a minor is using or receiving its material, they are prohibited from knowingly using, disclosing, compiling, or allowing a third party to use, disclose, or compile, the personal information of that minor with actual knowledge that the use, disclosure, or compilation is for the purpose of marketing or advertising to that minor any firearm-related product.

Violations of these provisions are subject to civil penalties of up to $25,000 for each violation in civil actions brought by the Attorney General or by any district attorney, county counsel, or city attorney. Each copy or republication of prohibited marketing or advertising is deemed a separate violation. Courts are provided specific factors to consider in setting the amount of the penalty including the nature, seriousness, and willfulness of the defendant's misconduct and the defendant's assets, liabilities, and net worth.

An individual harmed by a violation is also authorized to bring suit to recover their actual damages. This would require the individual to establish the causal connection between the violation and their damages.

In addition to the remedies above, the court can order injunctive relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order against the person or persons responsible for the conduct. A prevailing plaintiff is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including expert witness fees and other litigation expenses.

The bill also provides some direction to courts in determining whether marketing or advertising of a firearm-related product is attractive to minors. They are to consider the totality of the circumstances, including whether the marketing or advertising:

- uses caricatures that reasonably appear to be minors or cartoon characters to promote firearm-related products;
- offers brand name merchandise for minors, including, but not limited to, hats, t-shirts, or other clothing, or toys, games, or stuffed animals that promotes a firearm industry member or firearm-related product;
- offers firearm-related products in sizes, colors, or designs that are specifically designed to be used by, or appeal to, minors;
- is part of a marketing or advertising campaign designed with the intent to appeal to minors;

- uses images or depictions of minors in advertising and marketing materials to depict the use of firearm-related products; or
- is placed in a publication created for the purpose of reaching an audience that is predominately composed of minors and not intended for a more general audience composed of adults.

4. Concerns raised with the bill

Some concerns have been raised about the bill's constitutionality, namely whether it violates the First Amendment. The prohibitions in this bill restrict the commercial speech of the firearm industry members, but the mere fact that it restricts speech does not mean that such a restriction would violate the First Amendment of the United States Constitution or Article I of the California Constitution.

Generally speaking, the First Amendment and Article I of the California Constitution, act to protect the freedom of expression of the citizens of California. Commercial speech, which is done on behalf of a company or individual for purpose of making a profit, is protected under the state and federal guarantees of free speech, but to a lesser degree than noncommercial speech.¹² A blanket prohibition against truthful, nonmisleading speech about a lawful product, which serves an end unrelated to consumer protection, must be reviewed with skepticism. A "state legislature does not have the broad discretion to suppress truthful, nonmisleading information for paternalistic purposes[.]" (44 Liquormart, Inc. v. Rhode Island (1996) 517 U.S. 484, 510.) Ultimately, the First Amendment protects commercial speech against "unwarranted" governmental regulation.

In order to be upheld as a valid restriction on commercial speech, the proposed law must meet the following four-part test: (1) the speech must be about a lawful activity and cannot be false or misleading; (2) the government must have a substantial interest; (3) the law must directly advance the governmental interest asserted; and (4) the law must be no more extensive than necessary. (Central Hudson Gas v. Public Service Commission (1980) 447 U.S. 559.)

In this case, the proposed restriction is arguably about restricting the marketing of products to children that are not generally legally able to buy them. California law generally prohibits minors from possessing a handgun and most semi-automatic rifles, as well as ammunition. The possibility and even likelihood that marketing or advertising of firearm-related products that makes those products attractive to children who, in most cases, cannot lawfully possess them, greatly strengthens the argument that the bill's restrictions on the marketing and advertising of firearm-related products could withstand constitutional scrutiny. Even if the speech is lawful, the State of California arguably has a strong interest in taking steps to prevent firearms from being sold to minors, and the proposed law advances that interest in a manner that does not cover products or advertisements directed to lawful purchasers. Based on the findings incorporated into the bill that firearms marketing and advertising contributes to the unlawful sale of firearms to minors, as well as the unlawful transfer of firearms to minors by adults who may possess those weapons lawfully, the bill is arguably substantially related to the achievement of its objective. Although a determination regarding the First Amendment is ultimately for the courts, arguably the proposed restriction on marketing and advertising could survive such a challenge.

Similar laws already exist that restrict the advertising of other products to children. For instance, coin banks, toys, balloons, magic tricks, miniature bottles or cans, confections, dolls, or other items that appeal to minors or underage drinkers may not be used in connection with the merchandising of beer. (Bus. & Prof. Code § 25600.) Similarly, edible cannabis products cannot be designed to be appealing to children or easily confused with commercially sold candy or foods that do not contain cannabis. (Bus. & Prof. Code § 26130.)

Another particularly relevant example is the Privacy Rights for California Minors in the Digital World, which prohibits an operator of an internet website, online service, online application, or mobile application (“operator”) from the following:

- marketing or advertising specified products or services such as firearms, cigarettes, and alcoholic beverages on its internet website, online service, online application, or mobile application that is directed to minors;
- marketing or advertising such products or services to minors who the operator has actual knowledge are using its site, service, or application online and is a minor, if the marketing or advertising is specifically directed to that minor based upon the personal information of the minor; and
- knowingly using, disclosing, compiling, or allowing a third party to use, disclose, or compile, the personal information of a minor with actual knowledge that the use, disclosure, or compilation is for the purpose of marketing or advertising such products or services to that minor, where the website, service, or application is directed to minors or there is actual knowledge that a minor is using the website, service, or application. (Bus. & Prof. Code § 22580.)

As can be seen, the language of this bill borrows from these existing statutes.

Writing in opposition, the National Rifle Association argues the bill will not withstand constitutional challenge:

Even if one is to assume that AB 2571 meets the first three criteria of the test set forth in Central Hudson, the regulation fails the fourth part of the test. A minor may find a piece of advertising attractive for the same reasons as an adult. Adults and minors often use firearms for the same lawful purposes, prize the same characteristics in firearms, and therefore would be attracted to the same advertising materials. As AB 2571 would target advertising valued by both minors and adults it would necessarily “impinge on the speaker's ability to propose a commercial transaction and the adult listener's opportunity to obtain information about products.”

Moreover, the restriction in AB 2571 fails to appreciate that minors can and do possess and use firearms for a variety of lawful purposes. The state interest asserted in AB 2571 is to combat the “proliferation of firearms to and among minors.” The bill also notes, “[t]his state has a compelling interest in ensuring that minors do not possess these dangerous weapons.” The asserted interest is not necessarily to discourage illegal use of firearms by minors, but rather all use.

First, as minors are permitted by state law to use firearms for a variety of lawful purposes, it is dubious that the state’s asserted interest in AB 2571 of preventing firearm use by minors is “substantial,” as required by the second part of the Central Hudson test.

Second, if it is the drafters of AB 2571’s goal to curb the illegal use of firearms by minors, a less suspect state interest, surely banning all advertising that may be attractive to minors, even that contemplating the use of firearms for lawful purposes, would be overbroad under part four of the Central Hudson test.

The legislation’s drafters justify their proposed regulation by citing restrictions on “advertising and promotional marketing of alcohol, cannabis, and tobacco to protect minors.” As noted in the discussion of Lorillard Tobacco Co. v. Reilly, such measures must be the narrowest means of achieving an asserted state interest - which was not the case in Lorillard and is not the case with AB 2571.

However, lawmakers should also understand that the restrictions cited as analogous to that in AB 2571 are of a fundamentally different character. Unlike restrictions on advertising for alcohol, cannabis, and tobacco, the underlying products and conduct that AB 2571 seeks to curb the advertisement of are protected under the U.S. Constitution. As such, lawmakers should be prepared for the courts to level more scrutiny upon restrictions on advertisements concerning Second Amendment protected products and conduct than those leveled at products that don’t enjoy such protection.

One additional, potential legal barrier to the bill, is the federal Protection of Lawful Commerce in Arms Act (PLCAA). The PLCAA prohibits a qualified civil liability action from being brought in any federal or state court. (15 U.S.C. § 7902.) A “qualified civil liability action” means a civil action or proceeding or an administrative proceeding brought by any person against a manufacturer or seller of a qualified product, or a trade association, for damages, punitive damages, injunctive or declaratory relief, abatement, restitution, fines, or penalties, or other relief, resulting from the criminal or unlawful misuse of a qualified product by the person or a third party. (15 U.S.C. § 7903.) These statutes stand to preempt state laws that impose liability on manufacturers, sellers, and trade associations for the misuse of firearms by third parties.

However, there are exceptions to the PLCAA’s preemptive effect. Specifically, the federal law explicitly does not preempt “an action in which a manufacturer or seller of a qualified product knowingly violated a State or Federal statute applicable to the sale or marketing of the product, and the violation was a proximate cause of the harm for which relief is sought.” (15 U.S.C. § 7903.) Given that liability attaches in this bill for the direct conduct of firearm industry members themselves, namely their advertising, marketing, or use of minors’ personal information, and is not triggered solely by the misconduct of another party, the bill should arguably not be found to be preempted.

5. Stakeholder support

Brady California and the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence write in support of this measure:

Current laws restrict the content and placement of advertising and promotional marketing of alcohol, cannabis, and tobacco to protect minors. This is done to prevent potentially harmful substances from getting in the hands of young people as well as preventing the glorification around them. While we certainly see the point of restricting ads around the previous products listed, unlike firearms none of these are a leading cause of death for children and teens.

Writing in support, the City of Mountain View argues the bill provides “another tool in the tool belt of municipalities to counter dangerous practices that jeopardize the health and wellness of our communities.”

The County of San Diego writes in support of this bill, and gun legislation in general:

The County of San Diego recognizes action must be taken to prevent unintentional shootings and reduce the risk of homicides and decrease access to guns used in crimes.

State legislation that addresses gun violence will help hold the gun industry accountable through private lawsuits and by prohibiting the advertisement of certain categories of weapons. The County of San Diego supports these and other efforts that would allow for new oversight and accountability measures for the gun industry.
