25	WHEREAS:
26	The Court, on November 9, 2022, issued orders scheduling the meeting of
27	counsel pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16, 26 (f), and setting the Scheduling Conference
28	-1-

for December 23, 2022 at 9:30 a.m.

Counsel for the Defendants has a pre-paid vacation out of the state of California from December 19, 2022 through December 25, 2022. Counsel is currently unaware of the availability for a virtual appearance at the location where she will be staying.

Counsel for the Defendants is scheduled to begin her service as a juror with the California Superior Court on Tuesday, December 27 – said service having been postponed from the original start date of September 26, 2022 to December 27, 2022.

Counsel for the Plaintiff also has conflicting deadlines in other matters during the week of December 12-16, 2022, including a motion hearing and CMC on December 12, 2022, an opening brief and excerpts of record due in the Ninth Circuit on December 15, 2022, and a motion for preliminary injunction reply due on December 16, 2022.

Counsel for the Plaintiff also has a hearing on motion for preliminary injunction set for January 6, 2023, so she is unavailable to participate in a Scheduling Conference on that date.

Counsel for the parties have met and conferred on this issue and agree to the proposed stipulation, at the Court's discretion:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS AGREED AND STIPULATED, that

- (1) The Scheduling Conference currently set for December 23, 2022, shall be continued to January 13, 2023, at 9:30 a.m.
- (2) Counsel shall meet and confer at least twenty-one (21) days in advance of the new Scheduling Conference date to prepare a jointly signed report for the court containing the items and information listed in the court's order of November 9, 2022. (3) Counsel shall submit the joint report to the court no less than fourteen (14) days before the new Scheduling Conference date.
