INTRODUCTION

Good cause exists to shorten time to hear Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction. This motion must be heard urgently because Plaintiffs' current and upcoming litigation is effectively all on hold until California Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.11 is enjoined. Individual Plaintiffs are considering dropping out of their pending litigation out of fear of being ordered to pay the State's legal expenses for cases in which they have been participants for years.

8 Further, this case has now been related to another matter challenging the very same law, Miller v. Bonta, Case No. 3:22-cv-01446-BEN-JLB, filed in the Southern 9 District of California on September 26, 2022. ("Miller II"). The plaintiffs in that 10 matter have filed a motion for preliminary injunction as well, with a hearing set for 11 November 14, 2022 at 10:30 A.M. Given both matters deal with challenges to the 12 same law and that there is significant overlap in the arguments made in plaintiffs' 13 respective motions, it would be sensible for all parties to attend the same motion 14 hearing and would likely serve judicial economy as well. Plaintiffs request that this 15 Court move their hearing date to the same time as Miller II. 16

17 Counsel for the Miller II plaintiffs have confirmed they do not oppose this application so long as their own hearing date is not delayed, and so long as their motion be heard first on November 14th.

The Attorney General, through his counsel, has informed Plaintiffs he would 20 support having both motions heard on November 21, 2022, but not November 14, 21 2022, because he would have less time to oppose the additional claims made in this 22 matter. Yet having a shortened time to oppose Plaintiffs' motion is very unlikely to 23 make any difference here. The legislative history behind Section 1021.11 shows that 24 both the State Assembly and the Senate knew it was unconstitutional when they 25 passed it, and the Attorney General himself signed onto an amicus brief arguing a 26 similar provision in Texas law was unconstitutional. Section 1021.11 is so beyond 27 the pale that there is no serious contention to be made that it can pass constitutional 28 muster. This Court should not continue to let it do anymore damage than it already has.¹

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

In this matter, Plaintiffs are entities and individuals who face severe threats to their financial wellbeing as well as their constitutional rights due to Section 1021.11.
Each of the Plaintiffs has submitted declarations in support of the motion for preliminary injunction that illustrate how Section 1021.11 harms them or the association or organization they represent.

Section 1021.11 was enacted as part of California's Senate Bill ("SB") 1327, 9 cynically copying Texas's SB 8 law on abortion. California essentially copied SB 8 10 word-for-word but substituted in the word "firearms" everywhere that "abortion" 11 was mentioned. Section 1021.11 commands that "notwithstanding any other law" 12 (thus including even federal laws), "any person, including an entity, attorney, or law 13 firm, who seeks declaratory or injunctive relief to prevent this state, a political 14 subdivision, a governmental entity or public official in this state, or a person in this 15 state from enforcing any statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, or any other type of law 16 that regulates or restricts firearms, or that represents any litigant seeking that relief, 17 is jointly and severally liable to pay the attorney's fees and costs of the prevailing 18 party." 19

Under the plain language of Section 1021.11, if anyone seeks to challenge a state or local law in California related to firearms, they and their attorneys must be willing to bear the cost of the government's attorney's fees if they are not the prevailing party. And to be the "prevailing party" as defined under Section 1021.11, they must prevail on all claims. Under Section 1021.11(b), if the government

25

¹ If the hearing is set for November 14 as they request herein, to mitigate any prejudice to Defendant, Plaintiffs would support giving Defendant two additional days to oppose their motion beyond what the typical rules allow, such that his opposition is due on November 2 (instead of October 31). Plaintiffs' reply would still be due on November 7.

defendant prevails on even a single cause of action—even if a plaintiff gets the law they are challenging enjoined or overturned on other causes of action—the plaintiff is not the prevailing party and plaintiff and their attorney must pay the government's attorney's fees and costs.

Under Section 1021.11, fees do not even need to be obtained in the immediate 5 matter. Under subdivision (c), the government has three years to bring a separate 6 civil action to recover fees and costs. What's more, if Plaintiffs and their attorneys 7 are sued in such a civil action, under subdivision (d)(2) fees and costs not being 8 granted to defendants in the original matter are not a defense to the subsequent civil 9 matter, in violation of basic principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, and 10 federal Supremacy. Defendants could have this Court deny with finality a request 11 for attorney's fees, yet nonetheless sue Plaintiffs and their attorneys in a state civil 12 action up to three years later to try and retrieve them in that forum, as though this 13 Court's ruling and judgment on the fees issue was a nullity or merely advisory. 14

Additionally, in an outrageous act of contempt for the rule of law and our federal system, Section 1021.11(d)(3) declares that the "court in the underlying action [holding] that any provision of [Section 1021.11] is invalid, unconstitutional, or preempted by federal law" is not enough to bar the subsequent civil action for attorney's fees and costs.

Section 1021.11 is an existential threat for the associational Plaintiffs. 20 SBRGC, CRPA, GOC, and CCRKBA serve as Plaintiffs in many Second 21 Amendment-related lawsuits on behalf of their thousands of members. Critically, 22 they also pay for the expenses of such litigation. If Section 1021.11 is allowed to 23 impact the parties' liability for attorney's fees and costs in those matters, their ability 24 to petition courts to resolve their grievances would be chilled, if not entirely 25 eliminated. The risk of losing on even a single claim and then having to pay the 26 State's attorney's fees and costs would be too great a burden to risk. They also may 27 28 struggle to find attorneys willing to challenge gun laws, given attorneys are also jointly liable for the government's fee bills under Section 1021.11.

Section 1021.11 takes effect January 1, 2023, but is retrospective, applying to 3 any lawsuit that that was pending at any point in the three years prior to enactment 4 of the law. That means that firearms laws being currently litigated—including by 5 these Plaintiffs² in other matters in front of this District and others—and which were 6 filed well before SB 1327 was first proposed, are currently being burdened by the 7 8 law. Unsurprisingly, Section 1021.11 is unconstitutional for a number of reasons. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND 9 10 Plaintiffs filed their complaint on September 28, 2022, just two days after the plaintiffs in the Miller II matter filed their own complaint. This matter was initially 11 assigned to the Honorable Jinsook Ohta. Knowing of the existence of Miller II, 12 Plaintiffs filed a Notice of Related Case alongside their complaint. ECF No. 3. No 13 immediate action was taken on that notice. 14 Then, on October 14, 2022, Judge Ohta recused herself from the matter, and it 15 was reassigned to the Honorable Ruth Bermudez Montenegro. ECF No. 9. On 16 October 17, 2022, Plaintiffs filed a Renewed Notice of Related Case as well as their 17 18 19 Plaintiffs are involved in other cases as follows: 20 Plaintiffs Brennan, Henry, Ricks, and CRPA are also Plaintiffs in Rhode v. Bonta, Case No. 3:18-cv-00802-BEN-JLB filed in the Southern District. 21 Plaintiffs Duncan, Lovette, and CRPA are also Plaintiffs in Duncan v. Bonta, Case No. 17-cv-1017-BEN-JLB filed in the Southern District. 22 Plaintiffs South Bay Rod & Gun Club and CRPA are also Plaintiffs in B&L Prods. v. Newsom, Case No. 21-cv-01718-AJB-KSC filed in the Southern 23 District. Plaintiff Citizen's Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms is also a 24 Plaintiff in Renna v. Bonta, Case No. 20-cv-2190-DMS-DEB filed in the Southern District. 25 Plaintiff Gun Owners of California and CRPA are also Plaintiffs in Junior Sports Magazines, Inc. v. Rob Bonta, Case No. 2:22-cv-05663-CAS filed in the 26 Central District. Lastly, CRPA is involved in a number of additional cases besides the ones 27 mentioned already. A non-comprehensive listing of other active CRPA-backed cases can be found here: <https://crpa.org/programs/litigation-program/> (as of 28 October 5, 2022). 5 POINTS & AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF EX PARTE APPLICATION motion for preliminary injunction. ECF Nos. 10-11. The next morning, this matter was transferred to this Court pursuant to the low number rule. ECF No. 13.

Plaintiffs' motion was set for hearing on November 21, 2022 when it was filed, but given the order of transfer, it's not clear to Plaintiffs whether that is still the hearing date or not. Regardless, through this application, they hope this Court will set their hearing for November 14, 2022 alongside the hearing set for Miller II.

ARGUMENT

Good Cause Exists to Shorten Time for a Hearing on Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction

An application for an order shortening time must be accompanied by a declaration showing "good cause" for the order. FED. R. CIV. P. 6(c)(1)(C). As stated in the Declaration of Konstadinos T. Moros and further described here, "good cause" exists to shorten time for the hearing of Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction. Indeed, actual, irreparable harm to Plaintiffs' constitutional rights has already resulted and will continue to result if Plaintiffs are unable to present their case for and obtain a preliminary injunction at the first possible opportunity.

As described more fully in Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction, 17 Section 1021.11 violates a multitude of constitutional provisions, including the right 18 to petition the government for redress of grievances, interference with the right to 19 counsel of Plaintiffs' choosing in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment, violation 20 of the Fourteenth Amendment right to Equal Protection, and violation of the 21 Supremacy Clause of the Constitution. In addition, Section 1021.11 also suffers 22 from significant vagueness issues, and functions as an illegal Bill of Attainder given 23 it retroactive application and punitive intent. 24

That last point is the issue Plaintiffs and their counsel must wrestle with now.
Although Section 1021.11 doesn't technically take effect until January 1, 2023, there is no limiting language that says it does not apply retroactively. California state and local government defendants have three years to file a claim in state court to recover their legal fees and costs. As a result, and as confirmed in the declarations submitted with the motion for preliminary injunction, Plaintiffs are terrified they could be found liable for the State's expenses in their current lawsuits, some of which were filed well before Section 1021.11 was even proposed. They are thus considering dropping their lawsuits in hopes that the State does not pursue fee recovery actions against them, or to at least stop adding on further expenses they will be liable for with continued litigation.

8 But Section 1021.11 is so constitutionally infirm that even if Plaintiffs dropped their current challenges to firearms laws right now to avoid the burdens of 9 the law before it takes effect in January, the result of such an action seemingly will 10 be to have automatically made the government the "prevailing party" in those 11 abandoned matters. Thus, Plaintiffs face a dilemma that cannot be resolved absent 12 swift action by this Court. If they abandon their lawsuits now, they will be losers 13 and subject to paying the government's attorney's fees at some point within the 14 three years after they abandon their suits. If they continue their lawsuits, they could 15 also be deemed to be losers for losing any one claim asserted in them³ and subject to 16 paying the government's attorney's fees at some point in the future. 17

The associational Plaintiffs like California Rifle and Pistol Association, Incorporated that typically fund Second Amendment challenges in California are in a particularly precarious position. They have filed numerous cases and would effectively be bankrupted if they had to foot the bill for the State's litigation expenses. Even if Section 1021.11 was not retroactive and only applied to litigation

³ In fact, on both the Rhode and Duncan matters, plaintiffs are already deemed to be losers under Section 1021.11 because not all of their legal theories survived the lengthy appellate proceedings in each matter. Thus, even if the respective laws challenged in both matters are ultimately enjoined by the trial court on remand, the Attorney General would still be entitled to seek the State's attorney's fees and costs as the prevailing party against plaintiffs and their attorneyseven though the laws being defended were struck down as unconstitutional

being defended were struck down as unconstitutional.

filed on or after January 1, 2023, that would mean that the associational Plaintiffs 1 cannot risk starting any new firearm-related litigation in the new year and would 2 instead go silent in terms of their litigation efforts. While that may be the result the 3 Attorney General would prefer, it is repugnant to the Constitution. 4

Section 1021.11 is also already blocking future possible plaintiffs from utilizing the court system to redress their grievances. One declaration in support of 6 Plaintiffs' motion is from a major gun retailer in California, Turner's Outdoorsman, 7 8 which was considering joining a recently-filed lawsuit but did not do so because of Section 1021.11's intentional chilling effect. 9

Fundamental constitutional avenues for redress are thus now already being 10 thwarted by Section 1021.11. That would be bad enough for any law, but when the 11 law's own legislative history admits it is unconstitutional, it becomes insulting. This 12 Court should not make Plaintiffs wait any longer. It must move quickly to strike 13 down this abject nonsense before it can do any further harm. 14

15 Finally, given this Court is scheduled to hear a motion for preliminary injunction from the Miller II plaintiffs on November 14, 2022, it would likely serve 16 judicial economy to hear both motions on the same date and decide them 17 simultaneously. While there are some differences in the arguments, the motions for 18 preliminary injunction in both this matter and in Miller II argue that Section 1021.11 19 violates the Supremacy Clause, the Equal Protection Clause, and the First 20 Amendment right to petition. Plaintiffs believe it would benefit all parties and this 21 Court for the matters to be heard together. 22

Plaintiffs have Complied with the Procedural Requirements Governing 2. Ex Parte Motions

Pursuant to Southern District Local Civil Rule 7.1(e)(5), Plaintiffs confirm 25 they have included a proposed order with this application and also served this 26 application and its accompanying documents on all parties. Additionally, pursuant to 27 Local Civil Rule 83.3(g)(2), Counsel for Plaintiffs has submitted a declaration 28 8 confirming that he has informed counsel for Defendant about when and where this motion would be made. Moros Decl. ¶¶ 2-4. On October 21, 2022, Konstadinos T.

 Moros, counsel of record for Plaintiffs, contacted Elizabeth Watson, counsel of record for Defendant Rob Bonta, via email to provide notice that Plaintiffs intended to file an ex parte application for an order shortening time to hear their anticipated motion for preliminary injunction. Id.

Ms. Watson responded that her client would support a unified motion hearing date, but one set for November 21, not November 14. She wrote: "I agree that it makes sense to have one hearing date for both cases, but given that South Bay has more claims at issue than Miller II, I think it would make sense to have that single hearing on November 21, the date for which the South Bay case is currently scheduled. That way, defendants get the full time to which they are entitled to respond to the claims in South Bay." Id. ¶ 4.

Ms. Watson's contact information is as follows: Elizabeth Watson, Deputy Attorney General, California Department of Justice, 455 Golden Gate Avenue, Suite 11000, San Francisco, CA 94102-7004. Her telephone number is (415) 510-3847.
Her email is Elizabeth.Watson@doj.ca.gov. ECF No. 8.

Although the matters have not been consolidated, ECF No. 13, because it 18 could affect the scheduling of the Miller II motion, Counsel for Plaintiffs also 19 contacted counsel for the Miller II plaintiffs in order to confirm that they do not 20 oppose this application. Moros Decl. ¶ 5. Mr. Benbrook wrote: "We will not oppose 21 having the two motions for preliminary injunction heard on November 14, provided 22 that your team agrees that our motion will be heard first. We do not agree to move 23 the hearing date back, so, assuming you agree our motion will be heard first, please 24 25 note in your papers that we oppose a simultaneous hearing date if granting the request would involve moving the hearing date back." The contact information for 26 counsel for the Miller II plaintiffs is as follows: 27
