Friday, December 3, 2021, and adjourning the Dispositive Motion Hearing, presently scheduled for December 17, 2021, to a date to be determined.

3

There have been no prior stipulations by the parties seeking a stay of this matter.

4 Should the Court deny the parties' request for a stay, Plaintiffs request that the time for 5 Plaintiffs to submit an opposition to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment be adjourned to 6 January 7, 2022, and the Dispositive Motion Hearing be adjourned to January 21, 2022. There is 7 good cause for this request. Plaintiffs' opposition is due on Friday, December 3, 2021. The 8 deposition of Defendants' expert witness, Kim Raney, took place this past Monday, November 29, 9 2021, and the deposition transcript upon which Plaintiffs intend to rely in opposing Defendants' 10 motion, is not yet available. The adjourn date suggested is in consideration of the impending 11 holidays and court closures. Defendants are not opposed to this request.
