EXHIBIT B

4(c): Explanation for Pro Hac Vice Denial in U.S. District Court for the S.D. Cal.

In January 2020, I and my co-counsel, attorneys at the law firm Kramer, Levin, Naftalis & Frankel LLP, applied for pro hac vice admission to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California in Jones v. Becerra, No. 3:19-cv-01226, for the purpose of moving for leave to file an amicus curiae brief on behalf of Everytown for Gun Safety Support Fund. The district court denied the applications for failure to designate local counsel with an office located within the district. We reapplied for pro hac vice admission. The court then denied all motions for leave to file an amicus brief in the case, including Everytown's motion, and in connection with that denial, denied our pro hac vice applications, which the court also noted were incomplete. In light of the denial of leave to participate as amicus curiae, we did not resubmit our pro hac vice applications. Since this denial of pro hac vice admission, I have continued to apply for and, without exception, gain admission to the bars of multiple federal courts.
