PROCEEDINGS: (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER COORDINATING CASES AND CONTINUING HEARING ON MOTIONS FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

In these cases, Plaintiffs—California residents with licenses to carry a concealed weapon and organizations with such members—allege that SB 2 and California Penal Code Section 26230(a), which it enacts, are unconstitutional under the Second Amendment because they over designate “sensitive places” where carrying firearms is restricted. Plaintiffs in the first case, May, et al. v. Bonta, SACV 23-01696-CJC (ADSx) (“May”), filed a motion for preliminary injunction enjoining enforcement of Section 26230, subds. (5), (7), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), (17), (22), (23), and (26), with a hearing noticed for December 4, 2023. (May Dkt. 13.) Plaintiffs in the second case, Carralero v. Bonta, SACV 23-01798-CJC (ADSx) (“Carralero”), filed a motion for preliminary injunction enjoining enforcement of Section 26230, subds. (7), (8), (9), (10), (12), (13), (15), (16), (17), (19), (20), and (26), with a hearing noticed for October 30, 2023. (Carralero Dkts. 6, 15.) In the interests of judicial economy and efficiency, the Court believes these cases should be coordinated. Accordingly, the hearing on both motions for preliminary injunction will occur on December 20, 2023, at 1:30 p.m. The briefing schedule and word limits in May shall apply to both cases. (See May Dkt. 12.) Specifically, the government’s opposition briefs, with a 12,500 word limit, shall be filed by November 3, 2023, and Plaintiffs’ reply briefs, with the standard 7,000 word limit, shall be filed by November 20, 2023.
