Briefly describe the dispute that gave rise to this lawsuit.

This case presents a constitutional challenge to restrictions on the concealed carry of firearms in certain sensitive places identified in California Penal Code Section 26230(a).

Briefly describe the result below and the main issues on appeal.

The district court issued a decision enjoining the enforcement of California Penal Code section 26230(a)(7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), (15), (16), (17), (19), (20), (22), (23), and (26), and enjoining California Penal Code section 26230 as it pertains to parking areas.

The main issue on appeal is whether the provisions specified above are constitutional.

Describe any proceedings remaining below or any related proceedings in other tribunals.

The district court's decision preliminarily enjoined enforcement of certain provisions of California Penal Code section 26230, but did not decide the ultimate merits of Plaintiffs' claims.
