UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CALIFORNIA RIFLE AND PISTOL ASSOCIATION, INC. ET AL Plaintiff,

LOS ANGELES COUNTY SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT ET AL, Defendant.

Case No. CV 23-10169-SPG-ADS

CIVIL PRETRIAL SCHEDULE AND TRIAL ORDER

The pretrial schedule governing this case is set forth in the far right column labeled "Court Order" located on the parties' Schedule of Pretrial and Trial Dates Worksheet, which accompanies this Order. If the parties wish to set additional or alternative dates, they must file a stipulation and proposed order setting forth the dates requested and demonstrating good cause. Setting additional or alternative dates may be especially appropriate in class actions, patent cases, or cases for benefits under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

Please refer to the Court's Standing Order Re: Civil Cases for requirements for specific motions, discovery, certain types of filings, courtesy copies, emailing signature items to chambers, alternative dispute resolution, and other matters pertaining to all civil cases. A copy of the Court's Standing Order Re: Civil Cases is available on Judge Garnett's webpage at https://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/honorable-sherilyn-peace-garnett.

"Counsel," as used in this Order, includes parties who are represented by counsel and parties who have elected to appear without counsel and are representing themselves in this litigation (hereinafter referred to as "Pro Se Litigants"). Counsel, including Pro Se Litigants, must comply with this Order, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Central District of California Local Rules. See L.R. 1-3, 83-2.2.3. Pro Se Litigants are required to participate in the scheduling conference.

I. SCHEDULE OF PRETRIAL AND TRIAL DATES

- A. Discovery Cut-Off and Discovery Motions.
- 1. Fact and Expert Discovery Cut-offs: The cut-off date for discovery is not the date by which discovery requests must be served; it is the date by which all discovery, including all hearings on any related motions, must be completed. Thus, written discovery must be served and depositions must begin sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off date to permit the propounding party enough time, if the party chooses, to challenge via motion practice any responses the party asserts are deficient.
- 2. Expert Disclosures: All expert disclosures must be made in writing. The parties should begin expert discovery shortly after the initial designation of experts. The Final Pretrial Conference ("FPTC") and trial dates will not be continued merely because expert discovery has not been completed. Failure to comply with these or any other orders concerning expert discovery may result in the expert being excluded as a witness.
- 3. Discovery Motions: Discovery motions are handled by the Magistrate Judge assigned to the case. Any motion challenging the adequacy of discovery responses must be filed, served, and calendared before the assigned Magistrate Judge sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off date to permit the responses to be obtained before that date if the motion is granted. The parties are expected to meet and confer to attempt to resolve discovery disputes before filing a discovery motion and must use their best effort to resolve all discovery disputes in a courteous, reasonable, and professional manner. Counsel must adhere to the Civility and Professionalism Guidelines at: http://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/attorneys/admissions/civility-and-professionalismguidelines.

B. Non-Discovery Motions Deadline.

- 1. Meet and Confer Requirement. The parties are required under Local Rule 7-3 to meet and confer to attempt to resolve disputes before filing a motion. The parties should review the Court's Standing Order Re: Civil Cases for instructions regarding motions to dismiss, motions to amend, and other types of motions. The Court employs special procedures for motions under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56 for summary judgment (MSJ), including the parties' preparation of a joint brief and joint related documents. The parties should review the Court's MSJ Standing Order for a full explanation of the Court's briefing schedule and requirements.
- 2. Cut-off Date is the Last Day for Hearing the Motion. Judge Garnett hears non-discovery motions in civil cases generally through in-person appearances on Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m. All non-discovery motions must be noticed to be heard on or before their respective cut-off dates listed in the above schedule (i.e., all non-discovery motions, including MSJs, must be filed at least twenty-eight (28) days before the deadline in accordance with the requirements of L.R. 6-1.
- 3. Mandatory Chamber's Copies. The parties must deliver to Judge Garnett's chambers copy box located outside of the Clerk's Office on the fourth floor of the courthouse one (1) Mandatory Chambers Copy (a paper copy that is sent to Chambers upon electronic filing of the motion) only of Motions for Summary Judgment filings. Mandatory Chambers Copies must be delivered no later than 12:00 p.m. (noon) the following business day after the document is electronically filed. If, however, the electronically filed document is particularly voluminous (more than 500 pages), Mandatory

Chambers Copies may be delivered no later than 12:00 p.m. on the second business day after the document is filed.

C. Settlement Proceedings/Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Deadline. Pursuant to Local Rule 16-15, the parties must participate in a settlement conference/ ADR procedure. The Court's Schedule above sets forth the type of procedure the parties must use. If the parties prefer an ADR procedure other than the one ordered by the Court, they shall file a Stipulation and Proposed Order. The parties' request may not necessarily be granted. The parties shall file a Joint Report regarding the outcome of settlement negotiations, the likelihood of possible further negotiations, and any assistance the Court may provide concerning settlement negotiations within seven (7) days after the settlement conference. No case will proceed to trial unless all parties, including the principals of all corporate parties, have appeared personally at a settlement conference.

If a settlement is reached, it shall be reported immediately to this Court as required by L.R. 16-15.7. In all cases set for jury trial, the parties must notify the Court no later than the Tuesday preceding the trial date, of any settlement, so that the necessary arrangements can be made to bring in a different case for trial or to notify the members of the public who would otherwise be reporting for jury duty that their services are not needed that date.

D. Final Pretrial Conference/Proposed Final Pretrial Conference

1. Presence of Lead Trial. The Court has set the FPTC pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16 and Local Rule 16-8. The Court requires strict compliance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 16 and 26, and Local Rule 16 and does not exempt Pro Se Litigants from the requirements of Local Rule 16. Each party appearing in this action, except Pro Se Litigants, must be represented at the FPTC by lead trial counsel. All unserved parties will be dismissed at the time of the FPTC pursuant to Local Rule 16-8.1.

- 2. Matters to be Discussed During FPTC. Lead trial counsel shall be prepared to discuss at the Final Pretrial Conference all matters related to the trial, including, but not limited to, the following:
- (a) The witnesses all parties intend to call during their respective cases, and the amount of time necessary for direct and cross examination of each witness;
 - (b) Any anticipated problems in scheduling witnesses;
- (c) Efforts made to streamline the trial, including agreeing to testimony by deposition excerpts or summaries, stipulating to facts, and stipulating to an expert's qualifications;
- (d) Any evidentiary issues, including anticipated objections under Rule 403 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, and objections to exhibits;
 - (e) Jury selection procedures;
- (f) All pretrial motions, including motions in limine and motions to bifurcate and to sever;
- (g) Any disputed jury instructions, and the form of the instructions that will be given to the jury at the outset of the case, i.e., before opening statements and presentation of evidence;
- (h) Whether any counsel intends to use any evidence or demonstrative aid in opening statement; and
- (i) Motions to exclude witnesses from the courtroom during trial testimony.²
- 3. Requests for Additional Audio/Visual Equipment. The court provides audio/visual equipment for use during trial. The parties are encouraged to use it. More information is available at: http://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/clerk-services/courtroom-

The court encourages litigants to provide opportunities for less experienced lawyers to participate in the FPTC and in trial, especially where they contributed significantly in addressing an issue or preparing a witness. Of course, the ultimate decision of who speaks on behalf of the client is for the client and not the Court.

technology. If counsel for any party needs to arrange for the installation of their own equipment, such as video monitors, notebooks, or projection equipment, counsel shall notify the Courtroom Deputy Clerk (CRD) no later than 4:00 p.m. on the Wednesday before trial so that the necessary arrangements can be made.

4. Filing of Proposed Final Pretrial Conference Order. A proposed Final Pretrial Conference Order ("Proposed FPTCO") shall be filed and emailed to Chambers at least fourteen (14) days before the FPTC. A template for the Proposed FPTCO is available on Judge Garnett's webpage. The parties must use this template. In specifying the surviving pleadings under section 1, the parties are to state which claims or counterclaims have been dismissed or abandoned (e.g., "Plaintiff's second cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty has been dismissed."). Additionally, in multiple-party cases where not all claims or counterclaims will be prosecuted against all remaining parties on the opposing side, the parties are to specify to which party or parties each claim or counterclaim is directed.

In drafting the Proposed Final Pretrial Conference Order, the parties shall make a good faith effort to agree on and set forth as many uncontested facts as possible. The Court may read the uncontested facts to the jury at the start of the trial. A carefully drafted and comprehensively stated statement of uncontested facts will shorten the trial and generally increase jury understanding of the case.

The remaining triable issues of fact section on the Proposed FPTCO should track the elements of a claim or defense on which the jury will be required to make findings. Counsel should attempt to state issues in ultimate fact form, not in the form of evidentiary fact issues (i.e., "was the defendant negligent?"; "was such negligence the proximate cause of injury to the plaintiff?"; not, "was the defendant driving the vehicle west on Hill Street at 9:00 p.m. on January 1?"). Counsel may list sub-issues under the headings of ultimate fact issues, but shall not use this as a device to list disputes over evidentiary matters.

Issues of law should state legal issues upon which the Court will be required to rule after the Pretrial Conference, including during the trial, and should not list ultimate fact issues to be submitted to the trier of fact. The Final Pretrial Conference Order is the parties' agreement with the Court regarding the claims, defenses, and issues that will be tried during trial, as well as the facts that are not in dispute. Each party should ensure that it is accurate.

Mandatory Chambers Copies of electronically filed pretrial documents shall be delivered to Judge Garnett's chambers copy box outside of the Clerk's Office on the fourth floor of the courthouse. Chambers copies must be delivered in a "binder-ready" state, meaning they must be three-hole punched on the left side, without blue-backs, and stapled only in the top left corner.

B. Requirements for Pretrial Documents

- 1. Daubert Motions. Daubert motions will be heard not later than eight (8) weeks before the FPTC.
- 2. Motions in Limine. Motions in limine will be heard and ruled on at the FPTC. The court may rule orally instead of in writing. Each side is limited to five (5) motions in limine unless the court grants leave to file additional motions. All motions in limine must be filed at least twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC. Oppositions must be filed at least fourteen (14) days before the FPTC. There shall be no replies. Motions in limine and oppositions must not exceed ten (10) pages in length. Before filing a motion in limine, the parties must meet and confer to determine whether the opposing party intends to introduce the disputed evidence and attempt to reach an agreement that would obviate the need for the motion. Motions in limine should address specific issues (e.g., not "to exclude all hearsay"). Motions in limine should not be disguised motions for summary adjudication of issues. The court may strike excessive or unvetted motions in limine.

- 3. Witness Lists. Witness lists must be filed at least twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC. They must be in the format specified in Local Rule 16-5, and must include for each witness (i) a brief description of the testimony, (ii) the reasons the testimony is unique and not redundant, and (iii) a time estimate in hours for direct and cross-examination. The parties should use the template posted to Judge Garnett's webpage. Any Amended Witness List must be filed by 12:00 p.m. (noon) on the Friday before trial and emailed to SPG Chambers@cacd.uscourts.gov in Microsoft Word format.
- 4. Joint Exhibit List. The Joint Exhibit List must be filed at least twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC. It must be in the format specified in Local Rule 16-6 and shall include an additional column stating any objections to authenticity and/or admissibility and the reasons for the objections. The parties should use the template posted to Judge Garnett's webpage. Any Amended Joint Exhibit List must be filed by 12:00 p.m. (noon) on the Friday before trial and emailed to SPG_Chambers@cacd.uscourts.gov in Microsoft Word format.
 - 5. Jury Instructions (Jury Trial Only).
- (a) Schedule. Joint agreed upon proposed jury instructions must be filed no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the FPTC. The parties shall make every effort to agree upon jury instructions before submitting proposals to the Court. The Court expects the parties to agree on most instructions, particularly when pattern or model jury instructions exist and provide a statement of applicable law. The parties shall meet and confer regarding jury instructions according to the following schedule:

At least thirty-five (35) days before the FPTC: The parties shall exchange proposed general and special jury instructions.

Twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC: The parties shall exchange any objections to the instructions.

Twenty-one (21) days before the FPTC: The parties shall meet and confer with the goal of reaching agreement on one set of Joint Agreed Upon Proposed Jury Instructions.

Fourteen (14) days before FPTC: The parties shall file their (i) Joint Agreed Upon Proposed Jury Instructions and their (ii) Disputed Jury Instructions.

Counsel shall file and email a copy of the jury instructions in Microsoft Word format to SPG Chambers@cacd.uscourts.gov.

- (b) Red-lined Copy. The parties shall file clean and redline sets of their (i) Joint Agreed Upon Proposed Jury Instructions, and (ii) Disputed Jury Instructions. The redline sets shall include all modifications made by the parties to pattern or model jury instructions, any disputed language, and the factual or legal basis for each party's position as to each disputed instruction. Where appropriate, the disputed instructions shall be organized by subject, so that instructions that address the same or similar issues are presented sequentially. If there are excessive or frivolous disagreements over jury instructions, the court will order the parties to meet and confer immediately until they substantially narrow their disagreements.
- Ninth Circuit provides an applicable jury instruction, the parties should submit the most recent version, modified and supplemented to fit the circumstances of the case. Where California law applies, the parties should use the current edition of the Judicial Council of California Civil Jury Instructions. If neither applies, the parties should consult the current edition of O'Malley, et al., Federal Jury Practice and Instructions. The parties may submit alternatives to these instructions only if there is a reasoned argument that they do not properly state the law or are incomplete. The Court seldom gives instructions derived solely from case law.
- (d) Index: The Proposed Instructions must have an index that includes the following for each instruction, as illustrated in the example below:
 - o the number of the instruction;
 - o the title of the instruction;

- o the source of the instruction and any relevant case citations; and
- o the page number of the instruction.

Example:

Instruction

Trademark-Defined 9th Cir. 8.5.1

(15.U.S.C. § 1127)

During the trial and before closing argument, the Court will meet with counsel to settle the instructions, and counsel will have an opportunity to make a further record concerning their objections.

- (e) Format. Each requested instruction shall (i), if possible, be in Times New Roman font, font size 14, with each line of text spaced to line up with the numbering on the left side of the jury instruction template; (ii) start with the heading "COURTS INSTRUCTION NO." followed by the number of the instruction all centered on the page and on line 1 of the numbered template paper; (iii) beginning on line 3 of the numbered template paper, set forth in full the proposed instruction; (iv) cite the authority or source of the instruction beginning approximately four lines below the requested instruction; (v) with each instruction appearing on a separate page; (vi) cover only one subject or principle of law; and (vii) not repeat principles of law contained in any other requested instruction. If a standard instruction has blanks or offers options, e.g., for gender, the parties must fill in the blanks or make the appropriate selections in their proposed instructions.
- 6. Joint Verdict Forms (Jury Trial Only). The parties shall make every effort to agree on a general or special verdict form before submitting proposals to the court. The parties shall file a proposed joint general or special verdict form fourteen (14) days before the FPTC. If the parties are unable to agree on a verdict form, the parties shall file one document titled "Competing Verdict Forms" which shall include: (i) the parties' respective proposed verdict form; (ii) a "redline" of any disputed language; and (iii) the factual or legal basis for each party's respective position. The Court may opt to use a general verdict form if the parties are unable to agree on a special verdict form.

- 7. Joint Statement of the Case (Jury Trial Only). The parties must file a Joint Statement of the Case fourteen (14) days before the FPTC for the Court to read to the prospective jurors before commencement of voir dire. The joint statement should be brief and neutral and should not be more than one page in length.
- 8. Voir Dire (Jury Trial Only). Generally, a jury in a civil action will consist of eight (8) jurors. In most cases, the Court will seat sixteen (16) prospective jurors in the jury box and conduct its initial voir dire. Each side has three (3) peremptory challenges. If 16 jurors are seated in the box and all 6 peremptory challenges are exercised, the remaining 8 jurors will constitute the jury panel. If fewer than 6 peremptory challenges are exercised, the 8 jurors in the lowest numbered seats will be the jury.

The court will conduct the voir dire. The parties may, but are not required to, file any proposed case-specific voir dire questions for the Court's consideration at least fourteen (14) days before the FPTC. If it considers the questions proper, the Court will pose the questions to the prospective jurors.

All challenges for cause shall be made at side bar or otherwise outside the prospective jurors' presence. The Court will not necessarily accept a stipulation to a challenge for cause. If one or more challenges for cause are accepted, and all 6 peremptory challenges are exercised, the Court may decide to proceed with 6 or 7 jurors.

9. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law (Bench

Trial Only). For any trial requiring findings of fact and conclusions of law, each party shall file and serve on the opposing party, no later than twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC, its Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in the format specified in Local Rule 52-3. The parties may submit Supplemental Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law during the trial. Once trial concludes, the Court may order the parties to file Revised Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law with citations to the record.

10. Declarations of Direct Testimony (Bench Trial Only). When ordered by the Court in a particular case, each party shall, at least twenty-eight (28) days before the FPTC, file declarations containing the direct testimony of each witness whom that party intends to call at trial. If such declarations are filed, each party shall file any evidentiary objections to the declarations submitted by any other party at least fourteen (14) days before the FPTC. Such objections shall be submitted in the following three-column format: (i) the left column should contain a verbatim quote of each statement objected to (including page and line number); (ii) the middle column should set forth a concise legal objection (e.g., hearsay, lacks foundation, etc.) with a citation to the corresponding Federal Rule of Evidence or, where applicable, a case citation; and (iii) the right column should provide space for the Court's ruling on the objection. The Court anticipates issuing its ruling on the objections during the FPTC.

C. Trial Exhibits

Trial exhibits that consist of documents and photographs must be submitted to the Court in three-ring binders. The parties shall submit to the Court three (3) sets of binders: one (1) original set of trial exhibits, and two (2) copies of trial exhibits. The original set of exhibits shall be for use by the jury during its deliberations, and the copies are for the Court. The parties should prepare additional copies of exhibits for their own use and for use by witnesses. The parties must review the exhibit list and exhibit binders with the CRD before the admitted exhibits will be given to the jury. All exhibits placed in three-ring binders must be indexed by exhibit number with tabs or dividers on the right side. Exhibits shall be numbered sequentially 1, 2, 3, etc., not 1.1, 1.2, etc. See Local Rule 16-6. Every page of a multi-page exhibit must be numbered. Defendant's exhibit numbers shall not duplicate Plaintiff's numbers. The spine of each binder shall indicate the volume number and the range of exhibit numbers included in the volume.

1. Original Exhibits. The original exhibits shall bear the official exhibit tags (yellow tags for Plaintiff's exhibits and blue tags for Defendant's exhibits) stapled to the front of the exhibit on the upper right corner with the case number, case name, and exhibit number placed on each tag. Tags may be obtained from the Clerk's Office, or the parties may print their own exhibit tags using Forms G-14A and G-14B on the "Court Forms" section of the court's website.

- 2. Exhibit Copies. The copies of exhibits must bear copies of the official exhibit tags that were placed on the original exhibits and be indexed with tabs or dividers on the right side. In addition to the three (3) sets of binders above, the parties must also submit to the court a USB flash drive containing .pdf versions of all exhibits. The USB flash drive must be delivered to the judge's courtesy box located outside the Clerk's Office on the 4th floor of the courthouse by 12:00 p.m. on the Wednesday before the start of trial. Plaintiff's exhibits must be placed in a separate folder from Defendant's exhibits, and the document file names must include the exhibit number and a brief description of the document, for example: "Ex. 1 Smith Declaration.pdf" or "Ex. 105 Letter Dated 1-5-20.pdf."
- 3. Publishing Exhibits. The Court does not permit exhibits to be "published" to the jurors before they are admitted into evidence. Once admitted, exhibits may be displayed electronically using the equipment and screens in the courtroom. The parties must meet and confer at least ten (10) days before trial to stipulate as much as possible to foundation, waiver of the best evidence rule, and exhibits that may be received into evidence at the start of the trial. All such exhibits should be noted as admitted on the court and CRD's copy of the exhibit list.
- D. Materials to Present on First Day of Trial. The parties must present the following materials to the CRD on the first day of trial:
- 1. The three sets of binders described above, with one (1) original set of trial exhibits for the jury, and two (2) copies of trial exhibits for the Court.
- 2. Any excerpts of deposition transcripts to be used at trial, either as evidence or for impeachment. These lodged depositions are for the Court's use. The parties must use their own copies during trial.
- E. Court Reporter. Any party requesting special court reporter services for any hearing, such as "Real Time" transmission or daily transcripts, shall notify the court reporter at least fourteen (14) days before the hearing date. At least seven days before the commencement of trial, counsel for the parties shall provide the court reporter with a list of unusual words, phrases, and spellings that may come up during trial. This information should be emailed to Court Reporter Services at ReportersCACD@cacd.uscourts.gov.

F. Jury Trial. On the first day of trial, the Court will commence at 8:30 a.m. Counsel shall arrive at the Courtroom no later than 8:30 a.m. each day of trial. The parties must appear at 8:30 a.m. to discuss preliminary matters with the Court. The Court will call a jury panel only when it is satisfied the case is ready for trial. The Court anticipates jury selection will take only a few hours. The parties should be prepared to proceed with opening statements and witness examination immediately after jury selection.

Wednesdays are usually reserved for the Court's calendar. As a result, trial will not be held on Wednesdays unless the jury is deliberating or the Court's calendar allows trial to proceed. Therefore, trial days are generally Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. Trial days are from 8:30 a.m. to approximately 4:30 p.m., with two 15-minute breaks and a one-hour lunch break.

III. CONDUCT OF ATTORNEYS AND PARTIES

- A. Meeting and Conferring Throughout Trial. The parties must continue to meet and confer on all issues that arise during trial. The Court will not rule on any such issue unless the parties have attempted to resolve it first.
- B. Opening Statements, Witness Examinations, and Summation. Counsel must use the lectern. Counsel should not consume jury time by writing out words and drawing charts or diagrams. All such aids must be prepared in advance. When appropriate, the Court will establish and enforce time limits for all phases of trial, including opening statements, closing arguments, and the examination of witnesses.
- C. Objections to Questions. Counsel must not make speaking objections before the jury or otherwise make speeches, restate testimony, or attempt to guide a witness. When objecting, counsel must rise to state the objection and state only that counsel objects

D. Closing Arguments and Post-Trial Briefs (Bench Trials Only). For an overview and review of the evidence presented during trial, the Court will rely on the parties' closing arguments. In delivering closing arguments, the parties shall use their respective proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law as a "checklist" and should identify the evidence that supports their proposed findings. The Court will not accept post-trial briefs unless it finds that circumstances warrant additional briefing and such briefing is specifically authorized.

E. General Decorum While in Session.

- 1. Counsel must not approach the CRD, the jury box, or the witness stand without Court authorization and must return to the lectern when the purpose for the approach has been accomplished.
- 2. Counsel must rise when addressing the Court, and when the Court or the jury enters or leaves the courtroom, unless directed otherwise.
- 3. Counsel should rise when making an objection, state "objection" and a very brief ground for the objection, such as "calls for hearsay," "improper impeachment," "calls for speculation," "calls for a legal conclusion," etc. Counsel should refrain from making "speaking" objections, where a more drawn-out explanation is given in front of the jury. If the Court believes an explanation is needed for the objection, the Court will ask the objecting party to give a brief explanation of the grounds for the objection. If the Court believes an explanation may be needed for evidence or testimony objected to, the Court will ask for a brief "offer of proof" from the party opposing the objection.
- 4. Counsel must address all remarks to the Court. Counsel must not address the CRD, the court reporter, persons in the audience, or opposing counsel. To the extent possible, Counsel should avoid requesting to have the court reporter re-read questions or answers. Any such requests, should be addressed to the Court. Counsel must ask the Court's permission to speak with opposing counsel.

- 6. Counsel must not offer a stipulation unless counsel have conferred with opposing counsel and have verified that the stipulation will be acceptable.
- 7. Counsel must not leave counsel table to confer with any person in the back of the courtroom without the Court's permission.
- 8. Counsel must not make facial expressions, nod, shake their heads, comment, or otherwise exhibit in any way any agreement, disagreement, or other opinion or belief concerning the testimony of a witness or argument by opposing counsel. Counsel shall instruct their clients and witnesses not to engage in such conduct.
- 9. Counsel must never speak to jurors under any circumstance, and must not speak to co-counsel, opposing counsel, witnesses, or clients if the conversation can be overheard by jurors. Counsel must instruct their clients and witnesses to avoid such conduct.
- 10. Where a party has more than one lawyer, only one attorney may conduct the direct or cross-examination of a particular witness or make objections as to that witness.
- 11. Bottled water is permitted in the courtroom. Food and other beverages are not permitted. Cell phones must be silenced or may be confiscated.

F. Punctuality

- 1. The Court expects the parties, counsel, and witnesses to be punctual. Once the parties and their counsel are engaged in trial, the trial must be their priority. The Court will not delay progress of the trial or inconvenience jurors.
- 2. If a witness was on the stand at the time of a recess or adjournment, the party that called the witness shall ensure the witness is back on the stand and ready to proceed as soon as trial resumes.
- 3. The parties must notify the CRD in advance if any party, counsel, or witness requires a reasonable accommodation based on a disability or other reason.

- 4. No presenting party may be without witnesses. If a party's remaining witnesses are not immediately available, thereby causing an unreasonable delay, the Court may deem that party to have rested.
- 5. The Court generally will accommodate witnesses by permitting them to be called out of sequence. Counsel should meet and confer in advance and make every effort to resolve the matter.

G. Exhibits

- 1. Counsel must keep track of their exhibits and exhibit list, and record when each exhibit has been admitted into evidence.
- 2. Counsel are responsible for any exhibits they secure from the CRD and must return them before leaving the courtroom.
- 3. Any exhibit not previously marked must be accompanied by a request that it be marked for identification at the time of its first mention. Counsel must show a new exhibit to opposing counsel before the court session in which it is mentioned.
- 4. Counsel must inform the CRD of any agreements reached regarding any proposed exhibits, as well as those exhibits that may be received into evidence without a motion to admit.
- 5. When referring to an exhibit, counsel must refer to its exhibit number. Counsel should instruct their witnesses to do the same.
- 6. Counsel should not ask witnesses to draw charts or diagrams or ask the Court's permission for a witness to do so. All demonstrative aids must be prepared fully in advance of the day's trial session.
- 7. Counsel are required to seek to admit any items of evidence whose admissibility has not yet been stipulated to while the witness authenticating the exhibit is on the stand, so that any issues or concerns that arise may be addressed immediately.

H. Depositions

1. In using deposition testimony of an adverse party for impeachment, counsel may adhere to either one of the following procedures:

- a. If counsel wishes to read the questions and answers as alleged impeachment and ask the witness no further questions on that subject, counsel shall first state the page and line where the reading begins and the page and line where the reading ends and allow time for any objection. Counsel may then read the portions of the deposition into the record.
- b. If counsel wishes to ask the witness further questions on the subject matter, the deposition shall be placed in front of the witness and the witness told to read the relevant pages and lines silently. Then, counsel either may ask the witness further questions on the matter and thereafter read the quotations or read the quotations and thereafter ask further questions. Counsel should have available for the Court and the witness extra copies of the deposition transcript for this purpose.
- 2. Where a witness is absent and the witness's testimony is to be offered by deposition, counsel may: (i) have an individual sit on the witness stand and read the testimony of the witness while the examining lawyer asks the questions; or (ii) have counsel read both the questions and the answers.

I. Using Numerous Answers to Interrogatories and Requests for Admission.

Whenever counsel expects to offer a group of answers to interrogatories or requests for admissions extracted from one or more lengthy discovery responses, counsel should prepare a new document listing each question and answer and identifying the document from which it has been extracted. Copies of this new document must be provided to the Court and the opposing party.

J. Advance Notice of Difficult Legal, Evidentiary, Ethical, Conflict, Privilege or Otherwise Unusual Issues

If any party anticipates that a difficult question of law, evidence, ethics, conflicts, or privilege will necessitate legal argument requiring research or briefing, that party must give the Court advance notice. The parties must notify the CRD immediately of any unexpected legal issue that could not have been foreseen and addressed in advance. To the extent such issue needs to be addressed outside the jury's presence, the relevant party must inform the CRD before jurors are excused for the day to minimize the time jurors are kept waiting. The Court expects all parties to work diligently to minimize delays and avoid keeping jurors waiting.

K. Continuances of Pretrial and Trial Dates

The Court has a strong interest in keeping scheduled dates certain. Accordingly, pretrial and trial dates set by the Court are firm. Any request for continuance of pretrial and/or trial dates must be by motion, stipulation, or application, and must be supported by a declaration setting forth the reasons for the requested relief. The declaration must contain a detailed factual showing of good cause and due diligence demonstrating the necessity for the continuance and a description of the parties' efforts taken to advance the litigation. This showing should demonstrate that the work still to be performed reasonably could not have been accomplished within the applicable deadlines. General statements are insufficient to establish good cause.

The declaration should also include whether any previous requests for continuances have been made and whether these requests were granted or denied by the Court. Stipulations extending dates set by the Court are not effective unless approved by the Court, and without compelling factual support and a showing of due diligence, stipulations continuing dates set by the Court will be denied.

The Court thanks the parties and their counsel for their anticipated cooperation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
